2.1.2 At each enterprise or workplace, consultative mechanisms and procedures shall be established comprising representatives of the employer and employees. Each relevant association shall be entitled to be represented.

2.1.3 The particular consultative mechanisms and procedures shall be appropriate to the size, structure and needs of the enterprise or workplace.

2.1.4 The purpose of the consultative mechanisms and procedures is to facilitate the efficient operation of the enterprise or workplace according to its particular needs.

2.1.5 Where agreement is reached at an enterprise or workplace through such consultative mechanisms and procedures, and where giving effect to such agreement requires this Award, as it applies at the enterprise or workplace, to be varied, an application to vary shall be made to the Commission. The agreement shall be made available in writing, to all employees at the enterprise or workplace and to the Associations having an interest in the Award.

2.1.6 When this Award is varied to give effect to an agreement made pursuant to this Clause the variation shall become a Schedule to this Award and the variation shall take precedence over any provision of this Award to the extent of any expressly identified inconsistency.

- 3.2.1.3 If the matter is not settled it may be submitted to the Commission for resolution.

 - (b) a matter referred to in 4.1.1 from being a reason for terminating a person's employment as a member of the staff of an institution that is conducted in accordance with the doctrines, tenets, beliefs or teachings of a particular religion or creed, if the employer terminates the employment in good faith in order to avoid injury to the religious susceptibilities of adherents of the religion or creed.

4.2.2 Full-time employment

A full-time employee means an employee who is engaged by the week for 38 ordinary hours per week provided that where the normal full-time hours for a particular workplace covered by this Award are less than 38 then that is the number of hours regarded as full-time.

Provided that where an individual employee requests and the employer agrees, the minimum engagement in any week may be less than 15 hours, but not less than 7.6 hours.

4.2.3.2 For working ordinary hours a part-time employee is to be paid the appropriate ordinary hourly rate, multiplied by the number of hours worked by the part-time employee in the week concerned.

4.2.3.3 Part-time employees are entitled to the penalties and/or overtime rates prescribed in this Award. In this regard the maximum number of ordinary hours for a part-time employee is as provided for in clause 4.2.3.1.

4.2.3.5 Where a part-time employee usually works on a day of the week on which a public holiday occurs and the employee is not required to work on that day the employee must be paid for the hours the employee would have usually worked on that day.

4.2.3.6 A part-time employee is to be paid a minimum of three hours on any day that the employee is required to work.

4.2.4 Casual employment

4.2.4.1 A casual employee is an employee engaged on a contract of hire, which is less than weekly.

4.2.4.2 A casual employee who works ordinary hours is entitled to be paid the same ordinary hourly rate as a weekly hired employee, but with the addition of a 20 per cent casual loading. Such rates are deemed to be the employee's ordinary rate for the purpose of calculating the rates to be paid pursuant to 6.1, 6.3, 6.5 and 6.6.

Pursuant to the decision of the Full Commission in the Casual Loading Case [[2012] SAIRComm 1], the 20% loading will be increased in accordance with the following:

4.2.5.2 Every employer of such an employee shall give the employee notice in writing of the provisions of 4.2.5.1 within four weeks of the employee attaining 12 months continuous service. The employee retains his or her right of election under this clause if the employer fails to comply with the clause.

4.2.5.3 Any such employee who does not within four weeks of receiving written notice elect to convert his or her employment to full-time employment or part-time employment will be deemed to have elected against any such conversion.

4.2.5.4 Any employee who has a right to elect under clause 4.2.5.1, upon receiving notice under clause 4.2.5.2 or after the expiry of the time for giving such notice, may at any time thereafter give four weeks notice in writing to the employer that he or she seeks to elect to convert his or her employment to full-time or part-time employment, and within four weeks of receiving such notice the employer shall consent to or refuse the election but shall not unreasonably so refuse. Any dispute about a refusal of an election to convert to full-time or part-time employment shall be dealt with as far as practicable with expedition in accordance with Clause 3.2 Dispute Avoidance/Grievance Process.

4.2.5.5 Once an employee has elected to become and been converted to a full-time employee or a part-time employee, the employee may only revert to casual employment by written agreement with the employer.

Following such agreement being reached, the employee shall convert to full-time or part-time employment.

4.2.5.7 Where, in accordance with clause 4.2.5.4 an employer refuses an election to convert, the reasons for doing so shall be fully stated to and discussed with the employee concerned and a genuine attempt made to reach agreement.

4.2.5.8 Any dispute about the arrangements to apply to an employee converting from casual employment to full-time or part-time employment shall be dealt with as far as practicable with expedition in accordance with Clause 3.2 Dispute Avoidance/Grievance Process.

- 4.2.5.9 An employer must not engage or re-engage, or dismiss or threaten to dismiss, or prejudice or threaten to prejudice an employee in employment to avoid any obligation under this clause.
- 4.2.5.10 Where an employee converts from casual employment to full-time or part-time employment, the employee's service for the purposes of leave entitlements (other than long service leave) will be calculated from the commencement of part-time or full-time employment.
- 4.2.5.11 When an employee converts from casual employment to full-time or part-time employment under this clause, the employee's previous service as a casual employee, to the extent that employment was:

4.4.7.5 Continuity of service will be calculated in the manner prescribed by clause 1.6.

4.4.7.6 The severance payment need not exceed the amount which the employee would have earned if employment with the employer has proceeded to the employee's agreed date of retirement or the employee's eligibility date for social security benefits, and retirement from the workforce.

4.4.7.7 An employer may apply to the Commission for an order allowing the offsetting of all or part of an employee's entitlement to severance payment on the basis that such payment of part thereof is already provided for or included in the contributions which the employer has made over and above those required by law to a superannuation scheme and which are paid or payable to the employee on redundancy occurring.

The employer may pay in lieu thereof an amount equal to the difference between the former rate of pay and the new lower rate for the number of weeks of notice still owing.

4.4.12 Employee leaving during notice

An employee whose employment is terminated on account of redundancy may terminate employment during the period of notice. In this case the employee is entitled to the same benefits and payments under the Clause as if remaining with the employer until the expiry of such notice. CLAUSE S1.2 CLASSIFICATION CRITERIA

The Classification Criteria provides guidelines to determine the appropriate classification level of persons employed pursuant to this Award. In determining the appropriate level, consideration must be given to both the characteristics and typical duties/skills. The characteristics are the primary guide to classification as they indicate the level of basic knowledge, comprehension of issues, problems and procedures required and the level of supervision or accountability of the position. The totality of the characteristics must be read as a whole to obtain a clear understanding of the essential features of any particular level and the competency required. The typical duties/skills are a non-exhaustive list of duties/skills that may be comprehended within the particular level. They are an indicative guide only and at any particular level employees may be expected to undertake duties of any level lower than their own. Employees at any particular level may perform/utilise one such duty/skill, or many of them, depending on the particular work allocated.

The key issue to be looked at in properly classifying an employee is the level of competency and skill that the employee is required to exercise in the work they perform, not the duties they perform per se. It will be noted that some typical duties/skills appear in more than one level, however when assigning a classification to an employee this needs to be done by reference to the specific characteristics of the level. For example, whilst word processing and copy typing are first specifically mentioned at Level 2 in terms of typical duty/skill, it does not mean that as soon as an employee undertakes these duties they automatically become Level 2. They would achieve a Level 2 classification when they have achieved the level of skill and competency envisaged by the characteristics and the relevant indicative duty(ies)/skill(s) of a Level 2. Level 1 in this structure is to be viewed as the level at which employees learn and gain competence in the basic clerical skills required by the employer, which in most cases would lead to progress through the classification structure as their competency and skills increase and are utilised.

Level 1

Characteristics

Employees at this level may include the initial recruit who may have limited relevant experience. Initially work is performed under close direction using established practices, procedures and instructions.

Such employees perform routine clerical and office functions requiring an understanding of clear, straightforward rules or procedures and may be required to operate certain office equipment. Problems can usually be solved by reference to established practices, procedures and instructions.

Employees at this level are responsible and accountable for their own work within established routines, methods and procedures and the less experienced employee's work may be subject to checking at all stages. The more experienced employee may be required to give assistance to less experienced employees in the same classification.

Typical Duties/Skills

Indicative typical duties and skills at this level may include:

- (i) Reception/switchboard, e.g. directing telephone callers to appropriate staff, issuing and receiving standard forms, relaying internal information and initial greeting of visitors.

- (iv) Handling or distributing mail including messenger service.
- (v) Recording, matching, checking and batching of accounts, invoices, orders, store requisitions, etc.

S2.1.5 In calculating the abovementioned weekly rates, the amount must be taken to the nearest 10 cents, less than 5 cents to be disregarded, 5 cents or more to go to the highest multiple.

S2.1.6 Safety net adjustments

The rates of pay in this Award include the safety net adjustment payable under the 2018 State Wage Case and Minimum Standard for Remuneration. This safety net adjustment may be offset against any equivalent amount in rates of pay received by employees whose wages and conditions of employment are regulated by this Award which are above the wage rates prescribed in the Award. Such above Award payments include wages payable pursuant to enterprise agreements, currently operating enterprise flexibility agreements, award variations to give effect to enterprise agreements and over award arrangements. Absorption which is contrary to the terms of an agreement is not required.

Increases made under the existing or previous State Wage Case principles, previous General Reviews of Award Wages and the 2018 State Wage Case and Minimum Standard for Remuneration excepting those resulting from enterprise agreements or Award variations to give effect to enterprise agreements, are not to be used to offset safety net adjustments.

S2.1.7 Economic incapacity applications

Any employer or group of employers bound by an Award may apply to, temporarily or otherwise, reduce, postpone and/or phase-in the application of any increase in labour costs flowing from the 2018 State Wage Case and Minimum Standard for Remuneration on the grounds of serious economic adversity. The merit of such application will be determined in the light of the particular circumstances of each case and the impact on employment at the enterprise level of the increase in labour costs is a significant factor to be taken into account in assessing the merit of any application. A party may make such an application under s 31A of the South Australian Employment Tribunal Act 2014 (the SAET Act) in the form approved under rule 34 of the South Australian Employment Tribunal Rules 2017. It will then be a matter for the President to decide whether it should be dealt with by a Full Bench of SAET.

Any decision to temporarily postpone or reduce an increase will be subject to a further review, the date of which will be determined by SAET at the time it decides any application under this provision.

An individual employer making an application pursuant to this provision may make a request under s 55(2) of the SAET Act that the hearing of the matter be conducted in private and/or that some or all of the evidentiary material produced in the case not be available for inspection. Any such request will be determined by SAET in the circumstances of each case.

Note: As noted in clause S5.8, 20 per cent is the average proportion of time spent in Approved Training, which has been taken into account in setting the wage rates for most full-time Traineeships.

S5.11.3.4 Where a person was employed part-time by an employer under this Award immediately prior to becoming a part-time adult trainee with that employer, such person shall not suffer a reduction in the hourly rate of pay by virtue of becoming a trainee.

S5.11.3.5 Where the normal full-time weekly hours are not 38 the appropriate hourly rate may be obtained by multiplying the rate in the table by 38 and then dividing by the normal full-time hours.

S5.11.4 General formula

S5.11.4.1 For Traineeships not covered by S5.11.2.1, the following formula for calculation of wage rates shall apply:

The wage rate shall be pro-rata the full-time rates based on variation in the amount of training and/or the amount of work over the period of the Traineeship, which may also be varied on the basis of the following formula:

$$\text{Full-time wage rate} \times \frac{\text{Trainee hours} - \text{average weekly training time}}{30.4^*}$$

* Note: 30.4 in the above formula represents 38 ordinary full-time hours less the average training time for full-time Trainees (ie 20%). A pro-rata adjustment will need to be made in the case where the Award specifies different ordinary full-time hours: for example where the ordinary weekly hours are 40, 30.4 will be replaced by 32.

- (a) Full-time wage rate means the appropriate rate as set out in clauses S5.8.4, S5.8.5, S5.8.6 and S5.8.7.
- (b) Trainee hours shall be the hours worked per week including the time spent in Approved Training.
- (c) Average weekly training time is based upon the length of the Traineeship specified in the Traineeship Agreement or Training Agreement as follows:

$$\frac{7.6 \times 12}{\text{Length of the Traineeship in months}}$$

Note 1: 7.6 in the above formula represents the average weekly training time for a full-time Trainee whose ordinary hours are 38 per week. A pro-rata adjustment will need to be made in the case where the Award specifies different ordinary time hours for example, where the ordinary weekly hours are 40, 7.6 will be replaced by 8.

Note 2: The parties note that the Training Agreement will require a Trainee to be employed for sufficient hours to complete all requirements of the Traineeship, including the on the job work experience and demonstration of competencies. The parties also note that this would result in the equivalent of a full day's on the job work per week.

S5.11.5 Example of the calculation for the wage rate for a part-time traineeship

A school student commences a Traineeship in year 11. The ordinary hours of work in the Award are 38. The Training Agreement specifies two years (24 months) as the length of the Traineeship.

Average weekly training time is therefore $7.6 \times 12/24 = 3.8$ hours.

Trainee hours totals 15 hours; these are made up of 11 hours work which is worked over two days of the week plus 1-1/2 hours on the job training plus 2-1/2 hours off the job Approved Training at school and at TAFE.

So the wage rate in year 11 is:

$$\frac{$330 \times 15 - 3.8}{30.4} = $121.58 \text{ (plus any applicable penalty rates under the Award)}$$

The wage rate varies when the student completes year 11 and passes the anniversary date of 1 January the following year to begin year 12 and/or if trainee hours changes.

S5.11.6 Employment conditions for all part-time trainees

S5.11.6.1 A part-time Trainee shall receive, on a pro-rata basis, all employment conditions applicable to a full-time Trainee. All the provisions of the Award shall apply to part-time Trainees except as specified in this Schedule.

S5.11.6.2 However, a Trainee undertaking a school based Traineeship may, with the agreement of the Trainee, be paid an additional loading 20 per cent on all ordinary hours in lieu of annual leave, sick leave, personal leave and public holidays. Notwithstanding this, where a Trainee is called upon to work on a public holiday the provisions of the Award shall apply.

S5.11.6.3 A part-time Trainee may, by agreement, transfer from a part-time to a full-time Traineeship position should one become available.

S5.11.6.4 The minimum engagement periods specified in the Award shall also be applicable to part-time Trainees.
