PART 2 - AWARD FLEXIBILITY

Clause 2.1 Enterprise Flexibility Provision

OPDATE: 26:11:2002 on and from

2.1.1 In this clause a Relevant Association means an organisation of employees that:

2.1.1.1 has an interest in this Award; and

2.1.1.2 has one or more members employed by the employer to perform work in the relevant workplace.

2.1.2 At each workplace, consultative mechanisms and procedures will be established comprising representatives of the employer and employees. Each Relevant Association is entitled to be represented.

2.1.3 The particular consultative mechanisms and procedures will be appropriate to the size, structure and needs of the workplace.

2.1.4 The purpose of the consultative mechanisms and procedures is to facilitate the efficient operation of the workplace according to its particular needs.

2.1.5 Where agreement is reached at a workplace through such consultative mechanisms and procedures, and where giving effect to such procedures requires this Award, as it applies at the workplace, to be varied, an application to vary will be made to the Commission. PART 3 - COMMUNICATION, CONSULTATION AND DISPUTE RESOLUTION

Clause 3.1 Grievance and Dispute Settling Procedures

OPDATE 19:05:2008 on and from

For the purpose of this clause employee representative means a person that is not a union representative or union official and who is representing an employee in this procedure.

- 3.1 Any grievance, industrial dispute or matter likely to create a dispute should be dealt with in the following manner:
- 3.1.1 The respective parties are obliged to make every effort to ensure that these procedures operate effectively.
 - 3.1.2 Unions and the Department should inform each other, in writing, of the names of their duly accredited representative responsible, in the first instance, for matters arising on the job. The union's appointed job representative(s) will be entitled to represent union members employed by the Department. The Department's representative(s) will be responsible for dealing with matters raised by the union's job representative(s).
 - 3.1.3 If the employee is not a member of a union or is a member of a union and does not wish the union to represent them they are entitled to have a representative of their choice act on their behalf, providing the nominated representative agrees to provide representation.
 - 3.1.4 The appointed representative(s) will make themselves available for consultation as required under these procedures.
 - 3.1.5 The union's representative(s) or employee representative should discuss any matter affecting an employee with the supervisor in charge of the section or sections in which the grievance, dispute or likely dispute exists.
 - 3.1.6 If the matter is not resolved at this level the union's representative(s) or employee representative should ask that it be referred to the Department's representative nominated above, who will then arrange a conference to discuss the matter.
 - 3.1.7 The consultation process referred to above will be commenced within 24 hours of the grievance, dispute or likely dispute having been registered, or such longer period or shorter as may be agreed to by the parties.
 - 3.1.8 If the matter is not resolved at the conference referred to above, the union's representative(s) will advise the appropriate official of the union of the issue and a conference will be arranged. If the aggrieved employee is not being represented by a union then they or their representative should arrange the conference. The conference must be attended by the official(s) and the union job representative concerned (provided that the Union so decides), or the employee concerned and their representative and by the designated Departmental representatives, which may include a representative of the Chief Executive, Department of the Premier and Cabinet (if the Department so decides).
 - 3.1.9 If the matter cannot be resolved employing the above procedures, the Department and the union or the employee and their representative should enter into consultation at a higher level, as the parties consider appropriate. At this level of consultation a representative of the Chief Executive, Department of Premier and Cabinet must be involved.
 - 3.1.10 After consultation has occurred between the parties in accordance with these procedures, either party may request and be entitled to receive a response to its representations within a reasonable time as may be agreed to by the parties.
 - 3.1.11 If the matter is not resolved in accordance with these procedures either party may refer the matter to the Commission.
 - 3.1.12 Without prejudice to either party, and except where a bona fide health and safety issue is involved, work should continue on a status quo basis while matters in dispute are being dealt with in accordance with these procedures. A "status quo basis" will mean the work situation in place at the time the matter was first raised in accordance with these procedures.
 - 3.1.13 If there is undue delay on the part of any party to the matter, the party complaining of the delay may take the matter to a higher level in the dispute process.

- 3.1.14 In the event of a party failing to observe these procedures the other party may take such reasonable steps as are considered necessary to resolve the matter.
- 3.1.15 These procedures will not restrict the Department, or its representative(s), or a duly authorised official of the union or the employee or their representative from making representations to each other.

4.5.1.4 In calculating any payment in lieu of notice the employer must pay the wages an employee would have received in respect of the ordinary time the employee would have worked during the period of notice had the employee's employment not been terminated.

4.5.1.5 The period of notice in this clause does not apply in the case of:

PART 5 - SALARIES AND RELATED MATTERS

OPDATE: 26:11:2002 on and from

Clause 5.1 Classification of Employees

OPDATE: 22:12:2009 on and from

5.1.1 In this clause the following definitions will apply:

5.1.1.1 Close Direction - Employees working under close direction undertake a range of functions which are normally routine in nature, with limited responsibility for the final outcome. Only limited discretion is available in selecting the appropriate means of completing work assignments.

5.1.1.2 General Direction - Employees working under general direction undertake a range of functions and receive only general instruction for each work assignment. Discretion is normally available in selecting the appropriate means of completing assignments.

5.1.1.3 Limited Direction - Employees working under limited direction undertake a range of functions and receive only a clear statement of objectives for work assignments and will require little guidance during assignments.

5.1.1.4 Broad Direction - Employees working under broad direction undertake a range of functions, in response to instructions that are essentially in the form of broadly stated objectives, which require extensive experience and/or professional experience and the application of initiative and judgment to achieve the stated objectives.

5.1.2 The responsible officer will, upon initial engagement of any employee, and having regard to the nature and range of duties proposed to be assigned to the employee, properly classify the employee within one of the classifications following, namely -

School Services Officer Level 1

School Services Officer Level 2

School Services Officer Level 3

School Services Officer Level 4

School Services Officer Level 5

School Services Officer Level 6

5.1.3 Any employee who has served in a classification lower than that of School Services Officer Level 6 for not less than one completed school calendar year and is regularly called upon to perform a substantial volume of duties of the nature of those appropriate to a higher classification will be entitled to and will be reclassified by the responsible officer to such higher classification during such period as that employee continues to be so called upon. However an employee who is required to perform duties appropriate to a higher classification for a temporary period only will be dealt with according to the provisions of clause 5.6 of this award. Reclassification under this paragraph will not be dependent upon organisational vacancies but will be subject to the approval of the responsible officer who is satisfied that the work value of the duties being undertaken justifies such reclassification. Upon reclassification an employee will be placed upon an incremental step in the salary range appropriate to the new classification which attracts a salary not less than the salary paid to the employee immediately prior to reclassification.

5.1.4 Nothing in this clause is to be read or construed as limiting or affecting the right of the responsible officer reasonably to require an employee of any classification at any time, or from time to time, to perform duties appropriate to any other classification referred to in this clause, whether or not the duties are those normally attached to a higher or lower classification, or any other duties associated with the conduct of a school not specifically referred to.

5.1.5 Work Level DefinitionsSCHOOL SERVICES OFFICER CLASSIFICATION STRUCTURE

The following responsibilities are generally characteristic of the levels of work undertaken by School Services Officers.

The Work Level definitions form one part of the total classification criteria package for the School Services Officers (Government Schools) Award. In classifying positions regard must also be had to Position Information Documents contained in the Classification Standards published by the Chief Executive, and as varied from time to time.

5.1.5.1 School Services Officer - Level 1

Employees at this level work under close direction with limited requirement for exercising initiative, discretion and judgement in the provision of support to school based administrative and education programs. Typically, employees are responsible for routine clerical and/or keyboard related work and/or basic para-professional support in classrooms, laboratories or resource/computing centres.

It is expected at this level employees will develop a range of skills and knowledge including written and numeric skills, practical equipment skills (eg keyboard), interpersonal and other work skills.

As an employee develops more experience and knowledge he/she may be required to exercise greater judgement, make decisions and solve minor problems in their allotted duties. This is confined by instructions, established practices and procedures or written guidelines.

5.1.5.2 School Services Officer - Level 2

Employees at this level work under general direction with a requirement for exercising initiative, discretion and judgement in achieving clearly defined outcomes in respect of school based administrative and education programs. Work undertaken will be of a more responsible nature in terms of scope and complexity than that required at SSO-1. Typically, employees are responsible for a discrete component of the school administrative function or para-professional work in classrooms, laboratories and resource/computing centres requiring demonstrated expertise and the acceptance of personal responsibility.

At this level employees will have acquired administrative related skills and techniques and/or appropriate para-professional skills and a knowledge of relevant principles and practices normally gained through previous experience and on-the-job training.

While employees at this level are not responsible for the direct line supervision (that is direct reporting relationships between employees) of other employees, the allocation and monitoring of work performed and the provision of on-the-job training may be features of this level.

5.1.5.3 School Services Officer - Level 3

Employees at this level work under general direction with a requirement for exercising initiative, discretion and judgement in the day to day management and coordination of the school administrative function or support to educational programs. Typically, employees are responsible for the management of administrative and other support programs for a school or the management and coordination of one or more para-professional functions within a school.

At this level employees will have proven administrative related skills or a high level of para-professional skills and knowledge gained through previous experience, on-the-job training and/or post secondary education.

The direct line supervision of other employees may be a feature of this level.

5.1.5.4 School Services Officer - Level 4

Employees at this level working under limited direction exercise considerable initiative, discretion and judgement in the day to day management and coordination of a large and/or complex school administrative function or support to significant education programs. Typically, employees are responsible for the management of large and/or complex administrative and other support programs for a school or for the management and coordination of para-professional and other support functions to a cluster/number of schools.

At this level employees will have proven administrative skills including the contribution of critical knowledge and judgement to the management of complex school operations or a very high level of para-professional skills and knowledge gained through previous experience, on-the-job training and/or post secondary education.

The direct line of supervision of other employees may be a feature of this level.

5.1.5.5 School Services Officer - Level 5

Employees at this level work under limited direction and are identified as being responsible for the management of and the provision of leadership for complex administrative/finance functions or programs in the school/s, contributing critical knowledge and judgement to the leadership and management of the administrative/finance functions and activities undertaken as part of the school(s) strategic plan and associated local policies.

Typically employees will demonstrate experience and competence in the provision of leadership in a complex school administrative and financial environment. Important features include the level of responsibility for decision-making; the exercise of independent operation, judgement and delegated authority; the provision of leadership, high level advice, consultation and assistance relevant to the administrative and finance functions in a large and/or complex school or cluster of schools.

At this level employees will have a proven high level of administrative skills gained through previous experience and/or post secondary education and/or accredited training.

Direct line supervision of other non teaching employees may be a feature of this level.

5.1.5.6 School Services Officer - Level 6

Employees at this level work under broad direction and are identified as being responsible for the development and control or coordination of complex projects and/or programmes within a school or cluster of schools. This may include implementation and evaluation of particular projects and/or programmes.

At this level employees may be responsible under broad direction for the management of and provision of leadership for complex administrative/finance/business functions or programmes in the school or cluster of schools, at a level that requires contributing high level knowledge and judgement to the leadership and management of the administrative/finance functions and activities undertaken as part of the school(s) strategic plan and associated local policies.

Employees at this level will require significant levels of knowledge, which may include professional expertise or qualifications, and will require demonstrated experience and competence in the provision of leadership in a complex school administrative and financial/business environment.

The scope of the position may influence state, regional, cluster or school operations and will require:

- A significant level of responsibility and decision making, the exercise of independent judgment, independent operation and delegated authority; and
- The provision of leadership, high level and expert or professional advice, consultation and assistance relevant to the administrative and finance/business functions, projects or programmes in a large and/or complex school or cluster of schools; and
- Policy advice.

At this level employees will have a proven high level of administrative business or finance skills gained through previous experience and/or post secondary education and/or accredited training.

Direct line supervision of non-teaching employees may be a feature of this level.

5.1.6 Any dispute arising as to the proper classification of an employee on appointment or the right of an employee to reclassification under this clause will be heard and determined by the Grievance and Dispute Settling Procedures detailed in clause 3.1 of this Award.

Table 3: Wage rates for part-time Certificate IV Traineeships ($ per hour):

Trainees undertaking a part-time AQF IV traineeship shall receive the relevant hourly rate for AQF III trainees at Wage Levels A, B or C as applicable under Table 1 or 2 with the addition of 3.8 per cent of that wage rate.

An adult trainee (as defined) who is undertaking a part-time traineeship for an AQF IV qualification shall receive the following hourly rate as applicable based on the allocation of AQF III qualifications:

Wage Level	First year of traineeship	Second year of traineeship
Wage Level A	22.95	23.82
Wage Level B	22.07	22.90
Wage Level C	20.12	20.89

S3.11.3 The hours for which payment shall be made are determined as follows:

- S3.11.3.1 Where the Approved Training for a Traineeship (including a school based Traineeship) is provided off-the-job by a registered training organisation, for example at school or at TAFE, these rates shall apply only to the total hours worked by the part-time Trainee on-the-job.
- S3.11.3.2 Where the Approved Training is undertaken solely on-the-job and the average proportion of time to be spent in Approved Training is 20% (i.e. the same as for the equivalent full-time Traineeship), then the total hours on-the-job shall be multiplied by the applicable hourly rate, and then 20 per cent shall be deducted.
- S3.11.3.3 Where the Approved Training the training is partly on-the-job and partly off-the-job and the average proportion of time to be spent in Approved Training is 20% (ie the same as for the equivalent full-time Traineeship), then the total of all hours spent in work and training shall be multiplied by the applicable hourly rate, and then 20 per cent shall be deducted.

Note: As noted in clause S3.8, 20 per cent is the average proportion of time spent in Approved Training, which has been taken into account in setting the wage rates for most full-time Traineeships.

- S3.11.3.4 Where a person was employed part-time by an employer under this Award immediately prior to becoming a part-time adult trainee with that employer, such person shall not suffer a reduction in the hourly rate of pay by virtue of becoming a trainee.
- S3.11.3.5 Where the normal full-time weekly hours are not 38 the appropriate hourly rate may be obtained by multiplying the rate in the table by 38 and then dividing by the normal full-time hours.

S3.11.4 General Formula

S3.11.4.1 For Traineeships not covered by S3.11.2.1, the following formula for calculation of wage rates shall apply:

The wage rate shall be pro-rata the full-time rates based on variation in the amount of training and/or the amount of work over the period of the Traineeship, which may also be varied on the basis of the following formula:

$$\text{Full-time wage rate} \times \frac{\text{Trainee hours - average weekly training time}}{30.4^*}$$

* Note: 30.4 in the above formula represents 38 ordinary full-time hours less the average training time for full-time Trainees (i.e. 20%). A pro-rata adjustment will need to be made in the case where the Award specifies different ordinary full-time hours: for example where the ordinary weekly hours are 40, 30.4 will be replaced by 32.

- (a) Full-time wage rate means the appropriate rate as set out in S3.8.4, S3.8.5, S3.8.6 and S3.8.7 of this Schedule.
- (b) Trainee hours shall be the hours worked per week including the time spent in Approved Training.
- (c) Average weekly training time is based upon the length of the Traineeship specified in the Traineeship Agreement or Training Agreement as follows:

$$\frac{7.6 \times 12}{\text{Length of the } \textit{Traineeship} \text{ in months}}$$

Note 1: 7.6 in the above formula represents the average weekly training time for a full-time Trainee whose ordinary hours are 38 per week. A pro-rata adjustment will need to be made in the case where the Award specifies different ordinary time hours for example, where the ordinary weekly hours are 40, 7.6 will be replaced by 8.

Note 2: The parties note that the Training Agreement will require a Trainee to be employed for sufficient hours to complete all requirements of the Traineeship, including the on the job work experience and demonstration of competencies. The parties also note that this would result in the equivalent of a full day's on the job work per week.

S3.11.5 Example of the calculation for the wage rate for a part-time traineeship

A school student commences a Traineeship in year 11. The ordinary hours of work in the Award are 38. The Training Agreement specifies two years (24 months) as the length of the Traineeship.

Average weekly training time is therefore $7.6 \times 12/24 = 3.8$ hours.

Trainee hours totals 15 hours; these are made up of 11 hours work which is worked over two days of the week plus 1-1/2 hours on the job training plus 2-1/2 hours off the job Approved Training at school and at TAFE.

So the wage rate in year 11 is:

$$\frac{$330 \times 15 - 3.8}{30.4} = $121.58 \text{ (plus any applicable penalty rates under the Award)}$$

The wage rate varies when the student completes year 11 and passes the anniversary date of 1 January the following year to begin year 12 and/or if trainee hours changes.

S3.11.6 Employment conditions for all part-time trainees

S3.11.6.1 A part-time Trainee shall receive, on a pro-rata basis, all employment conditions applicable to a full-time Trainee. All the provisions of the Award shall apply to part-time Trainees except as specified in this Schedule.

- S3.11.6.2 However, a Trainee undertaking a school based Traineeship may, with the agreement of the Trainee, be paid an additional loading 20 per cent on all ordinary hours in lieu of annual leave, sick leave, personal leave and public holidays. Notwithstanding this, where a Trainee is called upon to work on a public holiday the provisions of the Award shall apply.
- S3.11.6.3 A part-time Trainee may, by agreement, transfer from a part-time to a full-time Traineeship position should one become available.
- S3.11.6.4 The minimum engagement periods specified in the Award shall also be applicable to part-time Trainees.
