1. TITLE

- 1.1 This Agreement is called the Staff Employed Under the Parliament (Joint Services) Act 1985 Enterprise Agreement 2015.

2 RELATIONSHIP OF AGREEMENT TO PARENT AWARDS AND AGREEMENTS

- 2.1 This Agreement is to be read and interpreted wholly in conjunction with the following Awards and Agreements:

- Hotels - Adelaide Entertainments Corporation and Staff Employed Under the Parliament (Joint Services) Act 1985 - Award.
- Agreement between the United Voice and the Joint Parliamentary Service Committee.

- 2.2 The terms and conditions prescribed in the Award as at the date this Agreement is certified and comes into effect, shall continue to have full force and effect for the life of this Agreement as if incorporated into this Agreement, provided that a clause of the Agreement prevails to the extent of any inconsistency with an incorporated provision of the Award.

- 2.3 If during the life of this Agreement the Award is varied on application by, or with the consent of, the Employer and Union/s, such variation will have effect so that the Award as varied will operate as per clause 2.2 of this Agreement.

- 2.4 If there is any inconsistency between this Agreement and the above mentioned Award and Agreement this Agreement shall take precedence to the extent of that inconsistency.

3. PARTIES BOUND AND TERM OF AGREEMENT

- 3.1 This Agreement is made in pursuance of Section 75 of the Fair Work Act 1994 this day of _____, 2015. This Agreement is made between the Joint Parliamentary Service Committee (the employer) and the employees employed under the Parliament (Joint Services) Act 1985 (the employees).

- 3.2 Following approval of this Agreement by the Industrial Relations Commission of South Australia (the Commission), the Agreement will not be binding on the Joint Parliamentary Service Committee until such time as the Committee makes a resolution pursuant to the Parliament (Joint Services) Act 1985 to give effect to that approval. Therefore, the term of this Agreement will be from the date the Joint Parliamentary Service Committee makes such resolution and will remain in force until 20 December 2016 or until rescinded or superseded.

4. PURPOSE

- 4.1 The purpose of this Agreement is to give effect to enterprise bargaining for employees employed under the Parliament (Joint Services) Act 1985.

5. AIMS AND OBJECTIVES

- 5.1 Whilst recognising the autonomy of the various Divisions of the Parliament, the aims and objectives of this Enterprise Agreement are to:

- Recognise that a number of initiatives have been, and will continue to be introduced to improve the efficiency and effectiveness of the Service;

- Consult in the development and implementation of reform and change programs;
- Ensure industrial harmony by adhering to the provisions of the agreed Grievance and Dispute Settling Procedures at Clause 18;
- Provide a basis for serious and genuine enterprise bargaining at the enterprise level;
- Provide for rewarding and meaningful work for all employees within an equitable, safe and healthy work environment;
- Provide wage increases consistent with Clause 13, “Wages and Salary Increase”;

The parties are committed to existing conditions of employment applying to a party not being reduced, subject to the terms of this Enterprise Agreement and any applicable Flexible Working Agreements. This commitment does not prevent the operation of other commitments in this clause, but not to the effect that (considered as a whole) would result in a diminution of conditions existing as at the date of approval by the Commission.

6. CONSULTATION

6.1 The parties commit to the following consultative principles:

- Consultation involves the sharing of information and the exchange of views between employers and persons or bodies that must be consulted and the genuine opportunity for them to contribute effectively to any decision making process.
- All parties should have an opportunity to put forward their points of view.
- The employer to consult in good faith, not simply advise what will be done.
- It is an accepted principle that effective workplace relationships can only be achieved if appropriate consultation between the parties occurs on a regular basis.
- Workplace change which will affect a significant number of employees should not be implemented before appropriate consultation has occurred with employee representatives.
- Employee representatives will be given the opportunity to adequately consult with the people they represent in the workplace, in relation to any proposed changes that may affect employees’ working conditions or the services employees provide.

7. REDEPLOYMENT, RETRAINING AND REDUNDANCY

7.1 Subject to this clause and conditional on approval of this Enterprise Agreement, the parties acknowledge that this agreement is made and entered into on the basis that a new Redeployment, Retraining and Redundancy scheme as detailed in Appendix 2 will be implemented to apply to the Joint Parliamentary Service Committee (the employer) and employees covered by this Enterprise Agreement.

7.2 The parties to this Enterprise Agreement agree that a Determination issued by the Commissioner for Public Sector Employment in relation to Redeployment Retraining and Redundancy will apply as policy to the parties covered by this Agreement.

8 WORKLIFE FLEXIBILITY

8.1 Voluntary Flexible Working Arrangements

The parties acknowledge the mutual benefit to the employer and employee of Voluntary Flexible Working Arrangements to balance work and other (including family) commitments.

8.1.1 The relevant Chief Officer will consider an employee's request to participate in a Voluntary Flexible Working Arrangement ("VFWA"), including part-time employment, having regard to both the operational needs of Parliament and the particular workplace and the employee's circumstances.

8.1.2 This clause applies for the period an employee participates in a VFWA.

- (a) Subject to this clause, the salary or wages payable to an employee, or applicable to a position, where the employee elects to participate in a VFWA, will be adjusted to take account of the VFWA in which the employee is participating, notwithstanding any other provision in this Enterprise Agreement or relevant Award or Agreements.
- (b) Where an employee is participating in a Purchased Leave type of VFWA, the rate of pay to be used for calculating overtime payments, leave loading or shift penalties will be the rate of pay that would have been payable had the employee not been participating in the Purchased Leave arrangement.
- (c) Where an employee is participating in a Compressed Weeks type of VFWA, the nominated normal hours for any day will constitute the employee's ordinary hours for the day. Overtime will only be payable where the employee is required to work hours in excess of those ordinary hours on any day or in excess of the total of those ordinary hours in a week.
- (d) Where, on cessation of employment, the employer makes a payment in lieu of notice; or a payment in respect of accrued recreation or long service leave entitlements (instead of transferring leave credits to another public sector employer in the event the employee immediately becomes employed by that employer party), the payment thereof (or the transferred leave credits) shall have regard to any period/s in which the employee participated in a VFWA and be adjusted accordingly.
- (e) an individual who enters into a flexible work agreement will not be required to work more hours in each pay period than he/she was required to work before the flexible work arrangements were entered into.

8.2 Parental Leave

Definitions

In this clause, unless the contrary intention appears:

Adoption includes the placement of a child with a person in anticipation of, or for the purposes of, adoption.

Adoption leave means adoption leave provided under 8.2.3.1 and 8.2.3.2.

Child means a child of the employee or the employee's spouse under the age of one year; or means a child under the age of 16 years who is placed with an employee for the purposes of adoption, other than a child or step-child of the employee, or of the spouse of the employee, who has previously lived with the employee for a continuous period of at least six months.

Eligible casual employee means a casual employee employed by an employer during a period of at least 12 months, either:

on a regular and systematic basis for several periods of employment; or on a regular and systematic basis for an ongoing period of employment, and who has, but for the pregnancy or the decision to adopt, a reasonable expectation of ongoing employment.

Extended adoption leave means paid and unpaid maternity/adoption/parental/special leave that is not to exceed 104 calendar weeks.

Extended paternity leave means paternity leave provided under 8.2.5.1(b).

Government authority means a person or agency prescribed as a government authority for the purposes of this definition.

Maternity leave means maternity leave provided under 8.2.3.1 and 8.2.3.2.

Medical certificate means a certificate as prescribed in 8.2.7.1.

Paid partner leave means leave provided for under 8.2.4.

Parental leave means adoption leave, maternity leave, paternity leave, surrogacy leave, extended adoption leave or extended paternity leave as appropriate, and is unpaid leave.

Primary care-giver means a person who assumes the principal role of providing care and attention to a child.

Relative adoption means the adoption of a child by a parent, a spouse of a parent or another relative, being a grandparent, brother, sister, aunt or uncle (whether of the whole blood or half blood or by marriage).

Short adoption leave means adoption leave provided under 8.2.3.3(b).

Special adoption leave means adoption leave provided under 8.2.12

Special maternity leave means maternity leave provided under 8.2.11.

Spouse includes a defacto spouse or a former spouse.

Unpaid Paternity leave means paternity leave provided under 8.2.5.

8.2.1 Employer's responsibility to inform

On becoming aware that:

- an employee is pregnant; or
- an employee's spouse is pregnant; or
- an employee is adopting a child,

an employer must inform the employee of:

- (i) the employee's entitlements under this clause; and
- (ii) the employee's responsibility to provide various notices under this clause.

8.2.2 Eligibility for and entitlement to parental leave

Subject to the qualifications in 8.2.6, the provisions of this clause apply to full-time, part-time and eligible casual employees but do not apply to other employees.

- (a) For the purposes of this clause continuous service is work for an employer on a regular and systematic basis (including a period of authorised leave or absence).
- (b) An employer must not fail to re-engage a casual employee because: the employee or the employee's spouse is pregnant; or the employee is or has been immediately absent on parental leave.

- (c) The right of an employer in relation to engagement and re-engagement of casual employees are not affected, other than in accordance with this clause.

8.2.3 Paid Maternity Leave and Paid Adoption Leave

Paid maternity leave, paid adoption leave and paid leave to enable parent-child relationships through surrogacy parenting applies in accordance with this clause. For the purpose of this clause maternity and adoption leave includes a parent taking primary responsibility (parent-child relationship) as a consequence of a surrogacy arrangement.

This clause applies to employees who commence an absence on maternity leave or adoption leave on or after the date of approval by the Commission of this Enterprise Agreement.

- 8.2.3.1 Subject to this clause, an employee, other than a casual employee, who has completed 12 months continuous service immediately prior to the birth of the child, or immediately prior to taking custody of an adopted child (as applicable), is entitled to: sixteen (16) weeks paid maternity or adoption leave (as applicable) (the applicable maximum period).
- 8.2.3.2 An employee who, at the time of taking such paid maternity or adoption leave, has been employed in Parliament House for not less than five (5) years (including any periods of approved unpaid leave) will be entitled to twenty (20) weeks (the applicable maximum period).
- 8.2.3.3 The following conditions apply to an employee applying for paid maternity leave or paid adoption leave:
 - (a) The total of paid and unpaid maternity/adoption/surrogacy/parental/special leave is not to exceed 104 calendar weeks in relation to the employee's child. For the purposes of this clause, child includes children of a multiple birth/adoption.
 - (b) An employee will be entitled to the applicable maximum period, paid at the employee's ordinary rate of pay (excluding allowances, penalties or other additional payments) from the date maternity/adoption leave commences. The paid maternity/adoption leave is not to be extended by public holidays, rostered days off, programmed days off or any other leave falling within the period of paid leave.
- 8.2.3.4 At the time of applying for paid maternity leave or paid adoption leave, the employee may elect in writing:
 - (a) To take the paid leave in 2 periods split into equal proportions during the first 12 months of the commencement of their paid leave; or
 - (b) To take the paid leave at half pay in which case, notwithstanding any other clause of this Enterprise Agreement, the employee will be entitled, during the period of leave, to be paid at half the ordinary rate of pay (excluding allowances, penalties or other additional payments) from the date maternity/adoption leave commences; or
 - (c) A combination of (a) and (b).
- 8.2.3.5 Part time employees will have the same entitlements as full time employees, but paid on a pro-rata basis according to the average number of contracted hours during the immediately preceding 12 months (disregarding any periods of leave).

8.2.3.6 During periods of paid or unpaid maternity leave, sick leave with pay will not be granted for a normal period of absence for confinement. However, any illness arising from the incidence of the pregnancy may be covered by sick leave to the extent available, subject to the usual provisions relating to production of a medical certificate and the medical certificate indicates that the illness has arisen from the pregnancy.

8.2.3.7 Where both prospective parents are employees covered by this Enterprise Agreement; or if the other prospective parent is also an employee of Parliament House (i.e. the other prospective parent is not covered by this Enterprise Agreement but is employed by Parliament House), the period of paid maternity/adoption leave (as applicable) may be shared by both employees, provided that the total period of paid maternity/adoption leave does not exceed the applicable maximum and that the leave is taken in periods of not less than four weeks and has regard to the operational needs of the organisation. Parents who are both employees of Parliament House, but are covered by different enterprise agreements may only share a period of paid maternity/adoption leave arising under one or other enterprise agreement (i.e. it is not intended that employees would somehow have access to more than one entitlement to paid maternity/adoption leave in respect of a child/ren).

8.2.3.8 The entitlements in this clause will be in addition to, but cannot be taken at the same time as, leave that may be taken as a result of the Commonwealth's Paid Parental Leave scheme.

8.2.4 Paid Partner Leave

8.2.4.1 Subject to this clause, an employee (other than a casual employee) is entitled to access up to one calendar week (i.e. five working days) (pro rata for part-time employees) of their accrued sick leave entitlement on the birth or adoption of a child/ren for whom the employee has direct parental care responsibility. The leave will be taken as full working day/s within 3 months of the birth or adoption of the child/ren.

8.2.4.2 Except in relation to an existing arrangement, a specific partner leave policy, or a requirement of this clause, the administrative arrangement for taking this leave will generally be as applicable to Personal Leave to Care for a Family Member.

8.2.5 Unpaid Paternity Leave

8.2.5.1 A male employee is, on production of the required medical certificate, entitled to one or two periods of paternity leave, the total of which must not exceed 52 weeks, as follows:

- (a) An unbroken period of up to one week at the time of the birth of the child.
- (b) A further unbroken period of up to 51 weeks in order to be the primary care-giver of the child (to be known as extended paternity leave).

8.2.6 Qualifications on entitlements and eligibility

- 8.2.6.1 An employee engaged upon casual or seasonal work is not entitled to parental leave.
- 8.2.6.2 An entitlement to parental leave is subject to the employee having at least 12 months of continuous service with the employer immediately preceding: in the case of maternity leave, the expected date of birth; or otherwise the date on which the leave is due to commence.
- 8.2.6.3 The entitlement to parental leave is reduced:
- (a) In the case of maternity leave, by any period of extended paternity leave taken by the employee's spouse and/or by any period of special maternity leave taken by the employee.
 - (b) In the case of extended paternity leave, by any period of maternity leave taken by the employee's spouse.
 - (c) In the case of extended adoption leave, by any period of extended adoption leave taken by the employee's spouse.

8.2.7 Certification required

- 8.2.7.1 An employee must, when applying for maternity leave or paternity leave, provide the employer with a medical certificate that:
- (a) names the employee or the employee's spouse, as appropriate;
 - (b) states that the employee or the employee's spouse is pregnant; and
 - (c) states:
 - the expected date of birth;
 - the expected date of termination of pregnancy; or
 - the date on which the birth took place;whichever is appropriate.
- 8.2.7.2 At the request of the employer, an employee must, in respect of the conferral of parental leave, produce to the employer within a reasonable time a statutory declaration which states:
- (a) Parental leave
 - The particulars of any period of parental leave sought or taken by the employee's spouse, and where appropriate;
 - That the employee is seeking the leave to become the primary care-giver of a child.
 - (b) Adoption leave
 - In the case of adoption leave, a statement from a Government authority giving details of the date, or presumed date, of adoption; and
 - That for the period of the leave the employee will not engage in any conduct inconsistent with the employee's contract of employment.

8.2.8 Notice requirements

- 8.2.8.1 Maternity leave

- (a) An employee must:
 - (i) Not less than 10 weeks before the expected date of birth of the child, give notice in writing to her employer stating the expected date of birth; and
 - (ii) Give not less than four weeks notice in writing to her employer of the date of which she proposes to commence maternity leave stating the period of leave to be taken; and
 - (iii) Notify the employer of any change in the information provided pursuant to 8.2.8 within two weeks after the change takes place.
- (b) An employer may, by not less than 14 days notice in writing to the employee, require her to commence maternity leave at any time within six weeks immediately before the expected date of birth. Such a notice may be given only if the employee has not given her employer the required notice.

8.2.8.2 Paternity leave

An employee must:

- (i) Not less than 10 weeks prior to each proposed period of paternity leave, give the employer notice in writing stating the dates on which he proposes to start and finish the period(s) of paternity leave.
- (ii) Notify the employer of any change in the information provided pursuant to 8.2.8 within two weeks after the change takes place.

8.2.8.3 Adoption leave

An employee must:

- (i) On receiving notice of approval for adoption purposes, notify the employer of the approval and, within two months of the approval, further notify the employer of the period(s) of adoption leave the employee proposes to take.
- (ii) In the case of a relative adoption, so notify the employer on deciding to take a child into custody pending an application for adoption.
- (iii) As soon as the employee is aware of the expected date of placement of a child for adoption purposes, but not later than 14 days before the expected date of placement, give notice in writing to the employer of that date, and of the date of commencement of any period of short adoption leave to be taken.
- (iv) At least 10 weeks before the proposed date of commencing any extended adoption leave, give notice in writing to the employer of the date of commencing leave and the period of leave to be taken.

8.2.8.4 Unforeseen circumstances

An employee is not in breach of any of these notice requirements if the employee's failure to comply is caused by unforeseen or other compelling circumstances, including:

- (a) the birth occurring earlier than the expected date; or

- (b) the death of the mother of the child, or
- (c) the death of the employee's spouse, or
- (d) the requirement that the employee accept earlier or later placement of the child, so long as, where a living child is born, the notice is given not later than two weeks after the birth.

8.2.9 Taking of parental leave

- 8.2.9.1 No employee may take parental leave concurrently with such leave taken by the employee's spouse, apart from paternity leave of up to one week at the time of the birth of the child or adoption leave of up to 3 weeks at the time of the placement of the child or paid partner leave of up to five working days.
- 8.2.9.2 Subject to complying with any relevant provision as to the taking of annual leave or long service leave, an employee may, instead of or in conjunction with parental leave, take any annual leave or long service leave to which the employee is entitled.
- 8.2.9.3 Subject to 8.2.6 and unless agreed otherwise between the employer and employee, an employee may commence parental leave at any time within six weeks immediately prior to the expected date of birth.
- 8.2.9.4 Where an employee continues to work within the six week period immediately prior to the expected date of birth, or where the employee elects to return to work within six weeks after the birth of the child, an employer may require the employee to provide a medical certificate stating that she is fit to work on her normal duties.
- 8.2.9.5 Where leave is granted under 8.2.9.4, during the period of leave an employee may return to work at any time, as agreed between the employer and the employee provided that time does not exceed four weeks from the recommencement date desired by the employee.

8.2.10 Variation and cancellation of parental leave

- 8.2.10.1 Without extending an entitlement beyond the limit set by 8.2.3, parental leave may be varied as follows:
 - (a) The leave may be lengthened once by the employee giving the employer at least 14 days notice in writing stating the period by which the employee requires the leave to be lengthened.
 - (b) The leave may be lengthened or shortened by agreement between the employer and the employee.
- 8.2.10.2 Parental leave, if applied for but not commenced, is cancelled:
 - (a) should the pregnancy terminate other than by the birth of a living child; or
 - (b) should the placement of a child proposed for adoption not proceed.
- 8.2.10.3 If, after the commencement of any parental leave:

- (a) the pregnancy is terminated other than by the birth of a living child or, in the case of adoption leave, the placement of the child ceases; and
- (b) the employee gives the employer notice in writing stating that the employee desires to resume work, the employer must allow the employee to resume work within four weeks of receipt of the notice.

8.2.10.4 Parental leave may be cancelled by agreement between the employer and the employee.

8.2.11 Special maternity leave and personal leave

8.2.11.1 If:

- (a) an employee not then on maternity leave suffers illness related to her pregnancy she is entitled to take leave under 8.3; or
- (b) the pregnancy of an employee not then on maternity leave terminates after 28 weeks otherwise than by the birth of a living child, she may take such paid personal leave as she is then entitled to and such further unpaid leave (to be known as special maternity leave) as a legally qualified medical practitioner certifies to be necessary before her return to work. Provided that the aggregate of paid personal leave, special maternity leave and maternity leave must not exceed the period to which the employee is entitled under 8.2.3 and she is entitled to take unpaid special maternity leave for such periods as a legally qualified medical practitioner certifies as necessary.

8.2.11.2 Where an employee is suffering from an illness not related to the direct consequences of the confinement, an employee may take any paid personal leave to which she is entitled in lieu of, or in addition to, special maternity leave.

8.2.11.3 An employee who returns to work after the completion of a period of such leave is entitled to the position which she held immediately before commencing such leave, or in the case of an employee who was transferred to a safe job, to the position she held immediately before such transfer.

8.2.11.4 If that position no longer exists, but there are other positions available which the employee is qualified for and is capable of performing, she is entitled to a position, as nearly as possible, comparable in status and pay as that of her former position.

8.2.12 Special adoption leave

8.2.12.1 An employee who has received approval to adopt a child who is overseas is entitled to such unpaid leave as is reasonably required by the employee to obtain custody of the child.

8.2.12.2 An employee who is seeking to adopt a child is entitled to such unpaid leave not exceeding five days as is required by the employee to attend such interviews, workshops, court attendances or examinations as are necessary as part of the adoption procedure.

8.2.12.3 The leave under this clause 8.2.12 is to be known as special adoption leave and does not affect any entitlement under 8.4.

8.2.12.4 Special adoption leave may be taken concurrently by an employee and the employee's spouse.

8.2.12.5 Where paid leave is available to the employee, the employer may require the employee to take such leave instead of special adoption leave.

8.2.13 Transfer to a safe job - maternity leave

8.2.13.1 If, in the opinion of a legally qualified medical practitioner:

(a) illness or risks arising out of the pregnancy; or

(b) hazards connected with the work assigned to the employee,

make it inadvisable for the employee to continue her present work, the employee must, if the employer considers that it is practicable to do so, be transferred to a safe job at the rate and on the conditions attaching to that job until the commencement of maternity leave.

8.2.13.2 If the transfer to a safe job is not considered practicable, the employee is entitled, or the employer may require the employee, to take leave for such period as is certified necessary by a legally qualified medical practitioner.

8.2.13.3 Leave under this clause will be treated as maternity leave.

8.2.14 Part-time work

8.2.14.1 An employee who is pregnant or is entitled to parental leave may, by agreement with the employer, reduce the employee's hours of employment to an agreed extent subject to the following conditions:

(a) Where the employee is pregnant, and to do so is necessary or desirable because of the pregnancy; or

(b) Where the employee is entitled to parental leave, by reducing the employee's entitlement to parental leave for the period of such agreement.

8.2.15 Communication during parental leave

8.2.15.1 Where an employee is on parental leave and a definite decision has been made to introduce significant change at the workplace, the employer shall take reasonable steps to:

(a) make information available in relation to any significant effect the change will have on the status or responsibility level of the position the employee held before commencing parental leave; and

(b) provide an opportunity for the employee to discuss any significant effect the change will have on the status or responsibility level of the position the employee held before commencing parental leave.

8.2.15.2 The employee shall take reasonable steps to inform the employer about any significant matter that will affect the employee's decision regarding the duration of parental leave to be taken, whether the employee intends to return to work and whether the employee intends to return to work on a part-time basis.

8.2.15.3 The employee shall also notify the employer of changes of address or other contact details which might affect the employer's capacity to comply with 8.2.15.1.

8.2.16 Return to work after parental leave

8.2.16.1 Subject to this clause, an employee is entitled to return to work after maternity or adoption leave on a part time basis, at the employee's substantive level, until the child's second birthday. The days and hours for the part time arrangement will be as agreed between the Chief Officer and the employee.

8.2.16.2 The following conditions apply to an employee applying to return on a part time basis:

- (a) The employee will provide such request at least 6 weeks prior to the date on which the employee's maternity or adoption leave is due to expire, and will provide to their Supervisor such information as may reasonably be required, including the proportion of time sought, and the date of the relevant child's second birthday.
- (b) At least 6 weeks prior to the relevant child's second birthday, the employee will advise their Supervisor whether the employee will revert to employment on a full time basis or seeks to continue to be employed on a part time basis.
- (c) An employee's return to work part time will be on a non-discriminatory basis so as to operate in the same manner as any other employee returning from a period of leave.

8.2.16.3 On returning to work after parental leave an employee is entitled:

- (a) to the position which the employee held immediately before commencing parental leave; or
- (b) in the case of an employee who was transferred to a safe job, to the position which she held immediately before the transfer.

8.2.16.4 If the employee's previous position no longer exists but there are other positions available which the employee is qualified for and is capable of performing, the employee is entitled to a position as nearly as comparable in status and pay to that of the employee's former position.

8.2.16.5 An eligible casual employee who is employed by a labour hire company who performs work for a client of the labour hire company will be entitled to the position which they held immediately before proceeding on parental leave.

8.2.16.6 Where such a position is no longer available, but there are other positions available that the employee is qualified for and is capable of performing, the employer shall make all reasonable attempts to return the employee to a position comparable in status and pay to that of the employee's former position.

8.2.17 Right to request

8.2.17.1 An employee entitled to parental leave pursuant to clause 8.2.2, may request the employer to allow the employee:

- (a) to return to work from a period of parental leave on a part-time basis until the child reaches school age, to assist the employee in reconciling work and parental responsibilities.

- 8.2.17.2 The employer shall consider the request having regard to the employee's circumstances and, provided the request is genuinely based on the employee's parental responsibilities, may only refuse the request on reasonable grounds related to the effect on the workplace or the employer's business. Such grounds might include cost, lack of adequate replacement staff, loss of efficiency and the impact on customer service.
- 8.2.17.3 The employee's request and the employer's decision made under 8.2.17.1(a) must be recorded in writing.
- 8.2.17.4 Where an employee wishes to make a request under 8.2.17.1(a), such a request must be made as soon as possible but no less than seven weeks prior to the date upon which the employee is due to return to work from parental leave.

8.2.18 Termination of employment

- 8.2.18.1 An employee on parental leave may terminate their employment at any time during the period of leave by giving the required notice.
- 8.2.18.2 An employer must not terminate the employment of an employee on the ground of her pregnancy or an employee's absence on parental leave. Otherwise the rights of an employer in relation to termination of employment are not affected by this clause.

8.2.19 Replacement employees

- 8.2.19.1 A replacement employee is an employee specifically engaged or temporarily promoted or transferred, as a result of an employee proceeding on parental leave.
- 8.2.19.2 Before an employer engages a replacement employee the employer must inform that person of the temporary nature of the employment and of the rights of the employee who is being replaced.

8.3 Personal Leave – Injury and Sickness

8.3.1 Entitlement to personal leave

An employee (other than a casual employee) who has a personal leave credit:

- 8.3.1.1 Is entitled to take personal leave if the employee is too sick to work; or
- 8.3.1.2 Who is on annual leave, is entitled to take personal leave if the person is too sick to work for a period of at least 3 consecutive days. Personal leave so taken does not count as annual leave.

8.3.2 Conditions for payment of personal leave

8.3.2.1 The employee is not entitled to payment for personal leave unless:

- (a) The employee gives the employer notice of the sickness, its nature and estimated duration before the period for which personal leave is sought begins

(but if the nature or sudden onset of the sickness makes it impracticable to give the notice before the period begins, the notice is validly given if given as soon as practicable and not later than 24 hours after the period begins); and

- (b) The employee, at the request of the employer, provides a medical certificate or other reasonable evidence of sickness.

8.3.2.2 The employee is entitled to payment at the employee's ordinary rate of pay (not including payments in the nature of penalty rates, overtime, allowances or loadings) for a period of personal leave.

8.4 Personal Leave – To Care for a Family Member

Definitions

Personal leave to care for a family member means leave provided in accordance with this clause.

Family - the following are to be regarded as members of a person's family:

- a spouse;
- a child or step child;
- a parent or parent in-law;
- any other member of the person's household;
- a grandparent or grandchild;
- any other person who is dependent on the person's care.

Personal leave means leave provided for in accordance with clause 8.3.

8.4.1 Paid personal leave to care for a family member

8.4.1.1 An employee (other than a casual employee) with responsibilities in relation to a member of the employee's family who need the employee's care and support:

- (a) due to personal injury; or
- (b) for the purposes of caring for a family member who is sick and requires the employee's care and support of who requires care due to an unexpected emergency, is entitled to up to 10 days or the equivalent in hours in any completed year of continuous service (pro rata for part-time employees) to provide care and support for such persons when they are ill.

8.4.1.2 By agreement between the employer and an individual employee, the employee may access an additional amount of their accrued personal leave for the purposes set out in this clause. In such circumstances, the employer and the employee shall agree upon the additional amount that may be accessed.

8.4.1.3 The entitlement to use personal leave to care for a family member is subject to the employee being responsible for the care of the person concerned.

8.4.1.4 The employee must, if required by the employer, establish by production of a medical certificate or statutory declaration, the illness of the person concerned and that the illness is such as to require care by another.

8.4.1.5 In normal circumstances an employee must not take personal leave to care for a family member where another person has taken leave to care for the same person.

8.4.1.6 The employee must, where practicable, give the employer notice prior to the absence of the intention to take leave, the name of the person requiring care and that person's relationship to the employee, the reasons for taking such leave and the estimated length of absence. If it is not practicable for the employee to give prior notice of absence, the employee must notify the employer by telephone of such absence at the first opportunity on the day of the absence.

8.4.1.7 The amount of personal leave to care for a family member taken is to be deducted from the amount of the employees personal leave credit.

8.4.2 Unpaid personal leave to care for a family member

8.4.2.1 Where an employee has exhausted all paid personal leave entitlements, an employee may elect, with the consent of the employer, to take unpaid leave for the purpose of providing care to a family member who is ill or who requires care due to an unexpected emergency.

8.4.2.2 The employer and the employee shall agree upon the period of unpaid personal leave to care for a family member which may be taken.

8.4.2.3 In absence of the agreement between the employer and the employee, the employee is entitled to take up to two days (of a maximum of 16 hours) of unpaid leave per occasion, provided that notice and evidentiary requirements are met.

8.4.3 Casual employees caring responsibilities

8.4.3.1 Casual employees are not entitled to personal leave to care for a family member or bereavement leave but subject to the evidentiary requirements in 8.4 and 8.5, casuals are entitled to not be available to attend work, or to leave work:

- (a) to care for a member of their family who is sick and require care and support, or who require care due to an unexpected emergency, or the birth of a child; or
- (b) upon the death of a family member.

8.4.3.2 The period for which the employee will be entitled to not be available to attend work for each occasion in clause 8.4.9.1 is:

- (a) the period agreed upon between the employer and the employee; or
- (b) up to 48 hours (or 2 days) per occasion.

8.4.3.3 The casual employee is not entitled to any payment for the period of non-attendance under this clause.

8.4.3.4 An employer must not fail to re-engage a casual employee because the employee accessed the entitlement provided for under this clause. The rights of an employer to engage or not to engage a casual employee are otherwise not affected.

8.4.3.5 This clause does not intend to alter the nature of casual employment and is without prejudice to any parties' arguments about the nature of casual employment.

8.5 Bereavement Leave

8.5.1 Entitlement to leave

An employee (other than a casual employee), on the death of a:

- spouse;
- parent;
- parent-in-law;
- sister or brother;
- child or step-child;
- grandparent;
- household member,

is entitled, on reasonable notice, to leave up to and including the day of the funeral of the relative. This leave is without deduction of pay for a period not exceeding the number of hours worked by the employee in 2 ordinary days work. Proof of death must be furnished by the employee to the satisfaction of the employer, if requested.

8.5.2 Unpaid entitlement to leave

An employee may take unpaid bereavement leave by agreement with the employer.

8.5.3 Effect of other leave

This clause has no operation where the period of entitlement to this leave coincides with any other period of leave.

8.6 Domestic/Relationship Violence

The parties acknowledge that an employee who is experiencing domestic or relationship violence (actual or threatened) can make reasonable use of, and Parliament House will provide reasonable access to, existing leave and flexible and safe working arrangements.

8.7 Continuous Service

8.7.1 Maintenance of continuous service

Except as otherwise indicated, service is deemed to be continuous despite:

- (a) Absence of the employee from work in accordance with the employee's contract of employment or any provision of this Agreement.
- (b) Absence of the employee from work for any cause by leave of the employer.
- (c) Absence from work on account of illness, disease or injury.
- (d) Absence with reasonable cause. Proof of such reasonable cause lies with the employee.
- (e) Interruption or termination of the employee's service by an act or omission of the employer with the intention of avoiding any obligation imposed by this Agreement or the Long Service Leave Act 1987.
- (f) Interruption or termination of the employee's service arising directly or indirectly from an industrial dispute if the employee returns to the service of the employer in consequence of the settlement of the dispute.
- (g) Transfer of the employment of an employee from one employer to a second employer where the second employer is the successor or assignee or transmittee of the first employer's business. In this case, service with the first employer is deemed to be service with the second employer.

- (h) Interruption or termination of the employee's service by the employer for any reason other than those referred to in this clause if the worker returns to the service of the employer within two months of the date on which the service was interrupted or terminated.
- (i) Any other absence from work for any reason other than those referred to in this clause, unless written notice is given by the employer that the absence from work is to be taken as breaking the employee's continuity of service. Such notice must be given during the period of absence or no later than 14 days after the end of the period of absence.

8.7.2 Calculation of period of service

Where an employee's service is deemed to be continuous under this clause, the period of absence from work is not to be taken into account in calculating the employee's period of time served with the employer except:

- (a) To the extent that the employee receives or is entitled to receive pay for the period; or
- (b) Where the absence results from a decision of the employer to stand the employee off without pay.

8.8 Reimbursement of Reasonable Child Care Costs

- 8.8.1 Where an employee, other than a casual employee, is given less than 24 hours prior notice that the employee is required to work outside of their ordinary hours of work, and consequently the employee utilises paid child care, the employer will reimburse the reasonable child care costs incurred by the employee arising from performing such work, subject to this clause.
- 8.8.2 The prior period of 24 hours is to be calculated from the time at which the work is to begin.
- 8.8.3 The work, or the hour/s to be worked, is not part of a regular or systematic pattern of work or hour/s performed by the employee.
- 8.8.4 The reimbursement will be in respect of the reasonable costs incurred by the employee in respect of the work.
- 8.8.5 Reimbursement will be made for child care costs in respect of Registered Care or Approved Care after all other sources of reimbursement have been exhausted. Where the child care costs are incurred for child care not in a registered or approved centre, reimbursement will be made in accordance with a child care reimbursement rate, and guidelines, published from time to time by the Commissioner for Public Sector Employment.
- 8.8.6 The employee will provide the relevant Chief Officer with a Child Benefit Claim Form for either Registered Care or Approved Care, tax invoice/receipt, or other supporting documentation as may from time to time be required, detailing the cost incurred, or reimbursement sought, in respect of the work.
- 8.8.7 For the purposes of this clause, a reference to work is a reference to the work outside the employee's ordinary hours, or regular or systematic pattern of work or hour/s, for which less than 24 hours prior notice is given.

8.9 Reimbursement of Reasonable Travel Cost

- 8.9.1 Where an employee, other than a casual employee, is required to work outside of their ordinary hours of work and the period of work starts or finishes outside of the ordinary timetabled operating hours of public transport, the employee will be entitled to reimbursement of reasonable home to work or work to home (as applicable) travel costs, subject to this clause.
- 8.9.2 The work, or the hour/s to be worked, is/are not part of a regular or systematic pattern of work or hour/s performed by the employee.
- 8.9.3 The employee ordinarily uses public transport.
- 8.9.4 Travel is by the most direct or appropriate route.
- 8.9.5 Reimbursement of reasonable taxi costs, or mileage at a rate determined from time to time by the Commissioner for Public Sector Employment.
- 8.9.6 The employee provides the relevant Chief Officer with such tax invoice/receipt or other supporting documentation as may from time to time be required detailing the cost incurred or reimbursement sought.

9. TRAINING AND DEVELOPMENT

- 9.1 The parties are committed to, and acknowledge the mutual benefit to the employer and employee, of planned human resource development and the provision and participation in development opportunities (including accredited training).
- 9.2 The parties acknowledge that the relevant Chief Officer will have regard to the principles contained in the Guideline for Planned Human Resource Development and Guideline for Individual Performance Development (howsoever named) issued by the Commissioner for Public Sector Employment.
- 9.3 Having regard to both the operational needs of Parliament, the particular workplace and the employees circumstances, the parties:
- (a) acknowledge the potential development opportunities for employees who are able to undertake temporary positions at their substantive or higher remuneration level, within Parliament House or another South Australian public sector agency, having regard to both the operational needs of Parliament and the particular workplace and the employees' circumstances.
 - (b) require the consideration of existing employees of the Parliament in filling temporary vacancies.

10. PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT

- 10.1 An employee bound by this Agreement will be entitled to:
- 10.1.1 Reimbursement of the reasonable cost of appropriate professional development expenses incurred during their employment subject to the following:
- a) The professional development is a compulsory requirement of a recognised professional registration or accreditation body applicable to the employee's professional capacity in order for the employee to maintain or acquire his or her registration or accreditation in the professional occupation or capacity in which he or she is employed; and

- b) The employer explicitly requires such registration or accreditation to be maintained or acquired for the performance by the employee of the duties for which he or she is employed;
- c) Provided that reimbursement will not apply:
 - (i) If the employee does not successfully complete the relevant professional development; or
 - (ii) If the employee ceases for any reason to be registered or accredited or is the subject of any disciplinary process being undertaken by the registration or accreditation body that may result in loss of registration or accreditation (but reimbursement will apply if there is no adverse disciplinary finding); or
 - (iii) If the fees or charges were partly or wholly incurred before entering employment with the employer or undertaking with the employer the duties of the applicable professional occupation, provided that the employer may agree to meet any part that arises during employment or the performance of the relevant duties.

10.1.2 Up to 5 days paid professional development leave over two years to attend approved professional development for which the employee is entitled to reimbursement under this clause. Any request for leave beyond 5 days will be subject to the applicable (discretionary) processes within the organisation in relation to paid or unpaid leave.

10.1.3 This clause does not detract from the operation of clause 9.

11. WORKPLACE FLEXIBILITY

11.1 The parties agree that a Chief Officer may negotiate and reach agreement at a workplace level with employees within that workplace (including a group or an individual employee), on more flexible employment arrangements that will better meet the operational needs of the workplace having regard to the needs of employees (including taking into account employees' family and other non-work responsibilities).

11.2 This clause applies to a proposal by a Chief Officer or employee/s within a workplace to negotiate and agree on flexible employment arrangements to operate within a workplace (a Workplace Flexibility Proposal).

11.2.1 Where a Chief Officer or employee/s intends to initiate a Workplace Flexibility Proposal, the initiator will notify the Chief Officer or employee/s (as applicable) within the workplace likely to be affected, of the terms of the proposal and the manner in which it is intended to operate. The Chief Officer will provide such information to such employee representative/s party to this Enterprise Agreement that the Chief Officer believes may represent employees within the applicable workplace and will consult with the employee representative/s and affected employee/s in accordance with the consultative principles in this Enterprise Agreement.

11.2.2 Consultation in respect of a Workplace Flexibility Proposal will have regard to: operational efficiency and productivity; work and non-work impacts on individual affected employees; and whether the Proposal has policy implications across other Parliament House workplaces. Where such policy implications arise, the affected employee/s, (or relevant employee representative/s party to this Enterprise Agreement) or the Chief Officer, may refer the Proposal to the Management Advisory Committee (MAC) for consultation with those employee/s and with relevant employee representative/s party to this Enterprise Agreement (for the purposes of this clause the MAC is as defined under the Parliament (Joint Services) Act 1985).

- 11.2.3 A Workplace Flexibility Proposal may not be put to a vote by affected employees where it proposes employment arrangements that are less favourable (considered as a whole) than arrangements applying pursuant to this Enterprise Agreement (including a relevant Award).
- 11.2.4 Where a majority of affected employees agree (whether by ballot or otherwise) to a Workplace Flexibility Proposal, the employment arrangements agreed will be provided in writing and will apply as if incorporated as an appendix to this Enterprise Agreement (a "Workplace Flexibility Agreement").
- 11.2.5 A party may apply to vary this Enterprise Agreement to add any Workplace Flexibility Agreement as a schedule to remove any uncertainty in the operation of this clause in giving effect to any Workplace Flexibility Agreement. The parties agree that any such application will be dealt with in accordance with the Variation clause in this Enterprise Agreement and will operate only in respect of the individual, group or workplace specified.

12. PERSONAL FLEXIBILITY AGREEMENT

- 12.1 An individual employee and the Chief Officer may mutually and voluntarily agree to make a written "Personal Flexibility Agreement" that will apply in accordance with this clause.
- 12.2 The employee and the Chief Officer must agree that there is mutual advantage in making such agreement (i.e. they each consider themselves better off overall having regard to this Enterprise Agreement and applicable award (considered as a whole)).
- 12.3 The Personal Flexibility Agreement will operate in accordance with its terms notwithstanding this Enterprise Agreement (other than this clause) and/or applicable award and will not operate for a period/s that extend/s beyond the life of this Enterprise Agreement.
- 12.4 A Personal Flexibility Agreement will cease to operate at the end of not less than four weeks written notice to the other (the last day to coincide with the end of a pay period applicable to the employee), unless earlier cessation is agreed by the Chief Officer and the employee.
- 12.5 A Personal Flexibility Agreement may, for example, provide for a personal arrangement as to the hours within which work is to be performed (whether at ordinary or penalty rates); configuration of working hours; and/or an all-inclusive or 'loaded' salary (that may have regard to e.g. out of ordinary hours; split working day arrangement; personal configuration of hours work; on-call and/or recall; availability and/or work performed out of hours whether at a workplace or by telephone and/or electronic means; annualised salary having regard to working arrangement and/or anticipated out of hours work; the particular nature of the work being performed; or otherwise).
- 12.6 A request by an individual employee for a Personal Flexibility Agreement is not a breach of the no extra claims clause and the Chief Officer is not required to accede to such requests (i.e. it is wholly voluntary on the part of each of the employee and employer). Despite any other clause of this Enterprise Agreement, a decision by an employee or the Chief Officer not to consider and/or to make a Personal Flexibility Agreement cannot be the subject of a dispute or review.

12.7 In this clause, “individual employee” means an employee:

- (a) whose salary is not less than the equivalent of step 1 of ASO6 (irrespective of classification stream); or
- (b) who has not less than 10 years’ experience in the occupation or duties for which the employee is employed (whether gained within or outside the public sector); or
- (c) who is employed in a discrete function or occupation/profession for which personalised flexibility is considered both by the employee and the Chief Officer as being mutually beneficial.

13. WAGES AND SALARY INCREASE

13.1 This clause refers to the wage and salary schedules appearing in Appendix 1A: Salaries Schedule and Appendix 1B: Wages Schedule.

13.2 Except as provided by this clause, the salaries and wages payable to employees are those detailed in Appendix 1A: Salaries Schedule and Appendix 1B: Wages Schedule, which provide for salaries and wages which will operate from the first full pay period commencing on or after 1 October 2014, 1 October 2015 and 1 October 2016.

The salary increases detailed in Appendix 1A and Appendix 1B are based on the following annual percentage increases:

1 October 2014	2.5% pa;
1 October 2015	2.5% pa; and
1 October 2016	2.5% pa.

13.3 This sub-clause applies to “pegged employees”.

13.3.1 A “pegged employee” is an employee who is in receipt of a wage rate which has been pegged at a rate above that which is generally payable in relation to the employee’s classification or position.

13.3.2 A pegged employee will not be entitled to any percentage or other increase in wage rate by reason of this Enterprise Agreement, unless the increase to the substantive rate of pay for an employee’s classification, or position, brings that rate up to an amount higher than the pegged rate. In that event, the increase payable will be the difference between the new substantive rate and the pegged rate.

13.3.3 Once the rate of pay for a pegged employee’s classification equals or exceeds the employee’s pegged rate, the employee will, for all purposes, be regarded as not being subject to a pegged rate of pay.

14. OCCUPATIONAL HEALTH SAFETY AND WELFARE

14.1 The parties are committed to, and acknowledge the mutual benefit to, and responsibility of, the employer and employees for maintaining a safe and healthy work environment in accordance with the principles of the Work Health and Safety Act 2012 as expressed in the Occupational Health, Safety and Welfare Policy adopted by the Presiding Officers and Joint Parliamentary Service Committee on 28 May 2009.

14.2 The parties will have regard to the Commissioner for Public Sector Employment’s guidelines in relation to the elimination of workplace harassment and bullying.

- 14.3 The employer will not require an employee to have an unreasonable workload in the ordinary discharge of the employee's duties, notwithstanding the sitting hours of both Houses of Parliament.
- 14.4 The parties will strive to achieve best practice in preventing and minimising workplace injuries, illness and periods of absence from work in order to:
- Improve workplace health and safety;
 - Improve return to work performance; and
 - Reduce human and workplace costs of injury or illness.
- 14.5 The parties will work to achieve and maintain applicable occupational health and safety and injury management standards and practices.

15. SALARY PACKAGING ARRANGEMENTS

- 15.1 This clause applies for the period an employee enters into a Salary Sacrifice Agreement. A Salary Sacrifice Agreement (SSA) is the formal administrative instrument between the employer and the employee which enables salary packaging arrangements to be put in place.
- 15.1.1 Subject to this clause, the salary payable to an employee, or applicable to a position where the occupant elects to enter into a SSA, pursuant to this Enterprise Agreement will be the salary payable under the SSA, notwithstanding any other provision in, or Schedule of, this Enterprise Agreement.
- 15.1.2 Any entitlement to payment of overtime, leave loading or shift allowance will be based on the salary that would have been payable had the employee not entered into a SSA.
- 15.1.3 Where, on cessation of employment, the employer makes a payment in lieu of notice; or a payment in respect of accrued recreation or long service leave entitlements (instead of transferring leave credits to another public sector employer in the event the employee immediately becomes employed by that employer party), the payment thereof shall be based on the salary that would have been payable had the employee not entered into a SSA.

16. AGENDA

- 16.1 This Agreement recognises that Divisions of the Joint Parliamentary Service will continue to evolve as dynamic and customer responsive entities. Initiatives have been and will continue to be introduced to improve the efficiency and effectiveness of the Joint Parliamentary Service and to provide high quality services for all users/customers.

17. GRIEVANCE AND DISPUTE SETTLING PROCEDURE

- 17.1 Any grievance, industrial dispute, or matter likely to create a dispute arising from this Agreement should be dealt with in the following manner:
- 17.2 The employee (with appropriate employee association or other representative if desired) should discuss any dispute affecting that employee with his/her supervisor.
- 17.3 If the matter is not resolved in accordance with 18.2 (where relevant the appropriate employee association shall be formally advised of the matter in issue) a conference on the matter will be arranged to be attended by the employee concerned and the employee association or an employee representative and the Secretary of the Joint Parliamentary Service Committee or other Chief Officer and a representative of the Office for the Public Sector or such other representative as the Secretary may decide.

- 17.4 The consultation process as prescribed in 18.3 shall commence within 24 hours of the dispute or likely dispute having been notified or such other period as may be agreed by the parties.
- 17.5 At any stage in the procedure, after consultation between the parties has taken place in accordance with the procedures, either party may request and be entitled to receive a response to its representatives within a reasonable time as may be agreed upon by the parties.
- 17.6 If the dispute or likely dispute is not resolved or there is undue delay on the part of the any party in responding to the matter, either party may refer the matter to the Industrial Relations Commission of South Australia. Such referral is subject to the provisions of the Parliament (Joint Services) Act 1985.
- 17.7 Without prejudice to either party, and except where a bona fide health and safety issue is involved, work is to continue while the matters in dispute are being dealt with in accordance with these procedures. "Work" means the work situation in place at the time the matter was first raised in accordance with these procedures.
- 17.8 In the event of a party failing to observe these procedures the other party may take such steps as determined necessary to resolve the matter.
- 17.9 These procedures will not restrict the employer or its representatives or a duly authorised official of an employee association making representations to each other.
- 17.10 The parties acknowledge that, at any time, the parties may agree to use existing arrangements with regard to the employee assistance programme.

18. NO EXTRA CLAIMS

- 18.1 The rates of pay provided for in this Enterprise Agreement are inclusive of all previously awarded safety net adjustments and all future increases during the term of this Agreement, arising out of State Wage Case decisions, including safety net adjustments, living wage adjustments or general increases, howsoever described.
- 18.2 Subject to this clause, the employees and associations undertake that for the term of this Enterprise Agreement, they will not pursue any further or other claims within the parameters of this Enterprise Agreement, except where consistent with State Wage Case principles.

19. VARIATIONS

- 19.1 Where a party believes that a variation is required by reason of ambiguity or uncertainty, that party will give notice of the basis for its belief to the other party. Parties receiving such notice will respond as soon as practicable and preferably within 28 days of receipt.
- 19.2 The parties recognise that the Fair Work Act 1994 permits the Commission to vary an Enterprise Agreement.
- 19.3 The parties recognise that amendments to this agreement can be developed to facilitate:

- The implementation of a Workplace Flexibility Agreement;
- Any other agreed changes.

19.4 For the purposes of facilitating variations in respect of particular workplaces which have been agreed by employees (or their representatives) within the particular workplace to give effect to a Workplace Flexibility Agreement; the parties undertake and agree that where a proposed variation:

19.4.1 Is to give effect to a Workplace Flexibility Agreement, the variation will be taken to have been agreed by the parties if a majority of affected employees agree to the variation; or 19.4.2 Is to give effect to an agreed matter the variation will be taken to have been agreed by the parties if the applicable employer and relevant employee representative/s party/ies to this Agreement agree to the variation.

20. RENEGOTIATION OF THE ENTERPRISE AGREEMENT

20.1 The parties to this Agreement agree that 6 months before the end of the Agreement they will seek to renegotiate a further agreement or a variation to this Agreement.

21. LIFE OF THE AGREEMENT

21.1 This Agreement will operate until 20 December 2016 or until replaced or superseded.

22. NOT TO BE USED AS A PRECEDENT

22.1 This Agreement will not be used as a precedent in any manner whatsoever to obtain similar arrangements or benefits in the South Australian Public Sector.

Casual Employees

Where an employee is engaged as a casual employee and classified in the ASO classifications in this Schedule of Appendix 1, that employee will be paid a loading of 25% in addition to the hourly rate payable for the relevant classification.

If the engagement of such a casual employee is determined by the Leader of Hansard as a Full Day then that employee will be paid for such an engagement at 7.5 hours of the appropriate hourly rate payable for the relevant classification plus the casual loading. This loading is in lieu of any entitlement to paid sick leave and annual leave.

If the engagement of such a casual employee is determined by the Leader of Hansard as a Half Day then that employee will be paid for such an engagement at 5 hours of the appropriate hourly rate payable for the relevant classification plus the casual loading. This loading is in lieu of any entitlement to paid sick leave and annual leave.

APPENDIX 2: REDEPLOYMENT, RETRAINING AND REDUNDANCY

Principles

1. The parties acknowledge the following principles that outline the core elements proposed for a redeployment, retraining and redundancy policy for Parliament House. Implementation will be supported by a Determination on managing excess employees issued by the Commissioner for Public Sector Employment (as varied from time to time).
2. The parties acknowledge that this policy is not intended to cover performance-related matters and/or misconduct that are the subject of a specific Commissioner's Guideline (Management of Unsatisfactory Performance (Including Misconduct)). This guideline will apply in the event that an employee declared excess declines to elect an option, participate in this process or refuses a reasonable alternative role.
3. Parliament House is a dynamic workplace with diversity of skills, capabilities and employees. This policy recognises this diversity and the challenges that the wider economic environment will place on the
 - a. need for increased flexibility towards changing skills sets;
 - b. the retention of existing skills and capabilities over time; and
 - c. managing service delivery within available resources.
4. Parliament House will manage workforce careers, training and redeployment to meet current and future service delivery and capability needs within the agency and, wherever possible, limit the use of term contract and labour hire staff.
5. Parliament House employees will adapt and develop capabilities to meet changing needs and challenges and those who are engaged on an ongoing basis and become displaced as a result of restructuring (declared excess employees) will engage in opportunities for retraining and redeployment.
6. If Parliament House undertakes a restructure/reorganisation it will consult with employees/employee associations and actively case-manage an employee declared excess (refer to "responsibilities section").
7. An employee declared excess will be advised in writing to that effect: provided with access to and considered for vacancies and invited to consider voluntary separation with appropriate payments.
8. Where an employee declared excess has been unsuccessful in obtaining an alternative ongoing position in the SA Public Sector after 12 months (since written advice of being declared excess), they may be separated with a suitable payment.
9. An employee who is placed in an ongoing or term/contract employment of no less than 12 months must be formally advised that they are no longer an excess employee. The 12 month period will include the cumulative effect of extensions in the same funded position.

Responsibilities

10. The Commissioner for Public Sector Employment will: provide an electronic jobs vacancy facility (e.g. JobsSA) to assist excess employees access suitable alternative roles in a more timely manner.
11. Parliament House will:
 - a. Ensure compliance with The Staff Employed Under the Parliament (Joint Services) Act 1985 and other applicable legislation; with applicable industrial instruments (enterprise agreements and awards) made under the Fair Work Act 1994 and with relevant Commissioner's determinations or guidelines including:
 - i. Consult with employees and employee associations about significant restructuring/reorganisation that is expected to result in fewer roles/positions.
 - ii. Ensure that the use of term contract and labour hire staff is reduced wherever possible.
 - iii. Ensure available roles and vacancies are promoted/advertised and support employees to be redeployed.

- iv. Actively case-manage excess employees to effectively assist in any transition to new roles including:
 - 1. providing access to vacancies and interview/active consideration for a role (which may occur at the same time as the role is being advertised) where an excess employee is identified for/applies for a vacancy and there is a skills and capabilities match;
 - 2. provide access to retraining support that may be available in accordance with terms and conditions specified from time to time, including arrangements that may apply to particular occupational groups, agencies or restructures; and
 - 3. adhere to voluntary separation arrangements¹ and/or release of an employee.
- b. Where an employee has not been able to secure a new role by the end of the 12 month period and has declined consideration of an early voluntary separation package during that time, they may be separated with a suitable payment.
- c. The period for counting towards the 12 months as an excess employee commences at the date of the written advice to the employee that they are declared excess.

12. Excess Employees

- a. Are responsible for actively adapting and developing their skills including:
 - i. Following receipt of written advice of being declared an excess employee, actively consider and indicate their preferred option: to either work to secure another ongoing role/position i.e. redeployment; seek the applicable case manager's assistance; or seek an invitation for an early separation payment.
 - ii. Co-operating with Parliament House or an agency to which they may be assigned, participate in re/training opportunities and make every effort to adapt to and undertake the role/s or position/s identified or into which she/he is placed or assigned.
 - iii. Work with an agency nominated person or external service provider who is allocated to assist with a restructure and/or redeployment, including counselling; skills and capability development; and consideration of opportunities within the public or private sectors.
 - iv. Must accept as quickly as possible and must not refuse assignment or placement into an alternative or another role/position that is a reasonable match with their skills and capabilities (incl. with training)
- b. Continue to be subject to processes and requirements (legislative, policy and administrative) applicable to a Parliament House employee

13. Application of separation payments

- a. An applicable voluntary separation arrangement must be offered to an excess employee if they haven't been successful in gaining an alternative ongoing position within the first 3 months of being declared excess (date of written notice).
- b. Where an employee declared excess identifies a preference for redeployment/retraining and declines the invitation to express interest in an early separation package in the first 3 months, then the quanta of any future invitation to accept a separation package will be reduced:
 - i. Redeployment period more than 3 months and up to 6 months 50% reduction;
 - ii. Redeployment period greater than 6 months and up to 9 months – 75% reduction.

¹ Treasurer's Budget Statement June 2014: TVSP 10 weeks plus 2 weeks payment per year of service to a maximum of 52 weeks.

A Chief Officer must notify the union/s, and at the same time the CPSE, at least three months prior the employee being due to reach the end of the 12 months of being excess.

Excess employees may be separated with a suitable package in the event that they are unable to be placed at the end of 12 months.

Where a significant number of employees are to be declared excess then the CPSE must be advised at the earliest opportunity.

This Appendix is to be read in conjunction with the Determination to be issued by the Commissioner for Public Sector Employment as referred to in Paragraph 1 above.

The parties to this Enterprise Agreement agree that a Determination to be issued by the Commissioner for Public Sector Employment in relation to Redeployment, Retraining and Redundancy will apply as policy to the parties bound as defined in Clause 3 of this Enterprise Agreement.
