OPDATE 01:01:2012 on and from

3.3.1.2 Ensure that all employees know and understand the disciplinary processes;

3.3.1.3 Ensure that all employees have the opportunity to improve their performance and/or modify their behaviour so that they are able to maintain a satisfactory level of performance;

3.3.1.4 To provide a workplace environment where employees are committed to performing to the best of their abilities;

3.3.1.5 To ensure that employees perform to expected standards and that they are aware of those standards and suitably trained to satisfy those standards;

3.3.1.6 To ensure that work practices and methods are designed and conducted in such a way so as to avoid risk of injury and risk to health of employees.

3.3.2 Representation

The employee may have another person of their choosing present at all stages of the disciplinary process at their own expense.

3.3.3 The process - minor and serious misdemeanours

3.3.3.1 For the purposes of this procedure, a misdemeanour relates to both poor work performance and unacceptable behaviour.

3.3.3.2 A single misdemeanour can be categorised as either a minor misdemeanour or a serious misdemeanour.

3.3.3.3 A number of minor misdemeanours may be categorised as a serious misdemeanour.

3.3.4 Minor misdemeanour

3.3.4.1 A minor misdemeanour need not be dealt with on the basis of a formal disciplinary action but may be dealt with informally by a Supervisor.

3.3.4.2 Where an employee repeats unacceptable behaviour and/or performance or commits further misdemeanours the Supervisor will exercise discretion as to the appropriate course of action. Each situation will be considered on its merits.

3.3.4.3 The Supervisor may decide to effect further counselling and/or guidance or may decide that the situation needs to be regarded as a serious misdemeanour and the formal disciplinary process effected.

3.3.5 Serious misdemeanour

A performance and/or behaviour matter may be immediately determined as serious in nature, in which case the formal disciplinary process commences.

3.3.6 Formal disciplinary action (serious misdemeanour)

The first stage:

3.3.6.1 The Supervisor will conduct an investigation into the matter.

3.3.6.2 Following the investigation the employee will be informed of the facts and asked to explain.

3.3.6.3 If the employee's explanation is unacceptable, then he or she will be given a first warning.

3.3.6.4 The Supervisor will keep a detailed record of the serious misdemeanour, the employee's explanation and the warning given. The warning will be confirmed in writing to the employee and the employee asked to sign it as an acknowledgment.

A copy of the document will be provided to the employee. A further copy will be sent to the Manager of Human Resources (or his/her delegate).

3.3.6.5 The employee may provide a written account of their version of the alleged serious misdemeanour to be included with the supervisor's report.

The second stage:

- 3.3.6.6 In the event of the serious misdemeanour being repeated or further misdemeanours committed, the Supervisor may affect counselling or guidance session(s) or may decide that a second and final warning is necessary. The procedure to be followed is as per 3.3.6.1 (in conjunction with the Manager of Human Resources and his/her delegate) and 3.3.6.2 of the first stage.
- 3.3.6.7 If it is decided to effect further counselling and/or guidance the Supervisor will keep a detailed record of any counselling and/or guidance session(s) conducted. A copy of the document will be provided to the employee. A further copy will be sent to the Manager of Human Resources (or his/her delegate).
- 3.3.6.8 If the employee's explanation is unacceptable a second warning will be given in the presence of a more senior line supervisor or Manager. The same procedure as per 3.3.6.4 and 3.3.6.5 of the first stage will be followed.
- 3.3.6.9 When situations arise where an employee commits misconduct bordering upon gross misconduct the supervisor, after consulting a more senior line supervisor or manager, may elect to immediately apply the second stage process.

The third stage:

- 3.3.6.10 In the event of further misdemeanour, the Supervisor having conducted an investigation will, in the presence of a more senior line Supervisor or Manager meet with the employee, advise of the facts and seek an explanation.
- 3.3.6.11 If the explanation is unacceptable the employee will be given an opportunity to state any reasons why action should not be taken.
- 3.3.6.12 All of the facts, including the employee's explanation and reasons will then be referred to the Manager of Human Resources (or his/her delegate) who will consult with the General Manager (or his/her delegate) to decide if termination of employment or other formal disciplinary action is appropriate.
- 3.3.6.13 Where termination of employment or other formal disciplinary action is appropriate, the employee will be advised that a further meeting will be held with the Manager of Human Resources (or his/her delegate).
- 3.3.6.14 If the termination of employment is appropriate, the employee will be advised and given pay in lieu of notice. A formal letter of termination to the employee will detail the reasons for termination of employment.
- 3.3.6.15 If the employee is to be demoted and/or transferred, they will be so advised and a formal letter written to them.

3.3.7 Gross misconduct - instant dismissal

- 3.3.7.1 The Corporation has the right under common law to dismiss an employee without notice for gross misconduct. In such instances, the employee will only be entitled to payment for work already performed in that week.
- 3.3.7.2 Gross misconduct occurs when an employee is guilty of a serious offence and his or her conduct is such as to repudiate his/her contract of employment. Each case will be considered on its merits.

- 3.3.7.3 The Supervisor will thoroughly and immediately investigate the matter.
- 3.3.7.4 The employee will be informed of the facts and given an opportunity to explain. The employee will be advised that immediate dismissal is a consideration and be given the opportunity to call witnesses.
- 3.3.7.5 A decision to dismiss will only be made following consultation between the Manager of Human Resources (or his/her delegate) and the General Manager (or his/her delegate).
- 3.3.7.6 Where an immediate decision is not practical, the Supervisor may suspend the employee from duty without loss of ordinary pay.
- 3.3.7.7 If it is determined that the immediate dismissal is the appropriate course of action, then the employee will be advised both verbally and in writing.
- 3.3.7.8 If it is determined that alternative disciplinary action is more appropriate, the options available within part 3.3.4 being the warning process and/or guidance and counselling and/or demotion or transfer will be effected in accordance with this clause.

PART 4 - EMPLOYER AND EMPLOYEES' DUTIES, EMPLOYMENT RELATIONSHIP AND RELATED ARRANGEMENTS

CLAUSE 4.1 ANTI-DISCRIMINATION

OPDATE 01:01:2012 on and from

- 4.1.1 It is the intention of the parties to this Award to achieve the principal object in section 3(m) of the Act by helping to prevent and eliminate discrimination on the basis of race, colour, sex, sexual preference, age, physical or mental disability, marital status, family responsibilities, pregnancy, religion, political opinion, national extraction or social origin.
- 4.1.2 Accordingly, in fulfilling their obligations under the disputes avoidance and settling clause, the parties must make every endeavour to ensure that neither the Award provisions nor their operations are indirectly discriminatory in their effects.

4.2.1.6 Provided further, that where the employee has within the last 12 months acted in the position for an accumulated period of 3 months, the employee will be considered to have satisfied this requirement.

4.2.2 Weekly hired employment (full time and part-time)

The contract of hiring of every employee bound by this Award will, other than in the case of casual employees, be deemed to be a hiring by the week. A full-time and part-time employee will be paid the rates prescribed under Schedule 4 (Actual Rates of Pay).

4.2.3.1 An employee who performs work (less than 38 hours per week), on a regular basis, may be engaged as a regular part-time employee. The employee is employed on a weekly contract of employment and entitled to the prescribed benefits of a full-time employee, but on a pro-rata basis according to the normal weekly hours worked.

4.2.3.2 Part-time employees are entitled to overtime payments for work performed in excess of the daily hours normally performed by the employee in accordance with his/her contract of employment, subject to any arrangements (re: flexible working hours), which may operate in respect of the workforce or work groups.

4.2.4.2 A casual is paid for time worked only and is not entitled to the various types of leave prescribed in Part 7 of the Award. Provided however, that where a casual performs work at a time which attracts penalty rates under the Award, the penalties will also apply for the work performed by the casual employee. The penalties which may apply, will be in substitution and not cumulative upon the casual loading prescribed in this clause.

4.2.4.3 Notwithstanding anything else included in this Award, an employee engaged as a Casual Swimming Pool Attendant shall be paid at the rate of 1/38th of the weekly rate, per hour for a Swimming Pool Attendant in Schedule 1 - Wage Rates of this Award, for all time worked.

4.3.1.2 In addition to the notice in 4.3.1.1, employees over forty-five years of age at the time of giving notice with not less than 2 years continuous service are entitled to additional notice of one week.

4.3.1.3 Payment at the ordinary rate of pay in lieu of the notice prescribed in 4.3.1.1 and/or 4.3.1.2 and/or 4.4.4 must be made if the appropriate notice period is not given. Employment may be terminated by part of the period of notice specified and part payment in lieu.

4.3.1.4 In calculating any payment in lieu of notice the Corporation must pay the wages an employee would have received in respect of the ordinary time the employee would have worked during the period of notice had the employee's employment not been terminated.

4.3.1.5 The period of notice in this clause does not apply in the case of:

- dismissal for conduct that at common law justifies instant dismissal;
- casual employees;
- employees engaged for a specific period of time; or
- for a specific task or tasks.

4.3.2 Time off during notice period

Where the Corporation has given notice of termination to an employee, the employee is entitled to up to one day's time off without loss of pay for the purpose of seeking other employment. 4.4.2 Exclusions

4.4.2.1 This clause does not apply to employees with less than 1 year's continuous service. The general obligation of the Corporation should be no more than to give such employees an indication of the impending redundancy at the first reasonable opportunity once the firm decision has been made, and to take such steps as may be reasonable to facilitate the obtaining by such employees of suitable alternative employment.

4.4.2.2 This clause does not apply where employment is terminated as a consequence of conduct that a common law justifies instant dismissal or in the case of casual employees or employees engaged for a specific period of time for a specified task or tasks.

4.4.3 Discussions before termination

4.4.3.1 Where the Corporation has made a decision that the Corporation no longer requires the job the employees have been doing done by anyone and that decision may lead to termination of employment, the Corporation will have discussions as soon as practicable with the employees directly affected and with the Union.

Discussions must include:

- the reasons for the proposed terminations;
- measures to avoid or minimise the terminations;
- measures to mitigate the adverse effects of any terminations on the employees concerned.

The Corporation is not required to disclose confidential information the disclosure of which when looked at objectively, would be against the Corporations interests.

- 4.4.4.1 If the services of an employee are to be terminated due to redundancy such an employee must be given notice of termination as prescribed by Clause 4.3 of this Award.

- 4.4.4.3 Should the Corporation fail to give notice of termination as required in 4.4.4.1 or 4.4.4.2 in this Award the Corporation must pay to that employee the ordinary rate of pay for a period being the difference between the notice given and that required to be given. The period of notice to be given is deemed to be service with the Corporation for the purposes of the Long Service Leave Act 1987.

4.4.5 Time off during notice period
