A person who is not a member of the Association shall automatically become a member of the Association upon election to any office in the Association and shall be liable to pay any amount in respect of admission to membership and shall have the same rights duties and liabilities as members who are admitted upon application.

- (d) Elections shall be by secret ballot and every financial member of the Association shall be entitled to vote.
- (e) The Returning Officer shall call for nominations by 31 March in an election year, and close the roll of voters 7 days before nominations are called.
- (f) Nominations shall be lodged with the Returning Officer and shall close at 5pm on 1 April in each election year, or if 1 April is a Saturday, Sunday or public holiday, the next ordinary business day.

Attachment I

- (g) The Returning Officer shall check all nominations received to see that they comply with the requirements of the rules. If the Returning Officer considers that a nomination does not comply with the Rules, wherever practicable the Returning Officer shall notify the relevant nominee of the defect within one week of nominations closing, and in any case, as soon as possible. Where it is practicable to do so, the Returning Officer shall allow the relevant nominee one week to remedy the defect, or such lesser period as the Returning Officer considers necessary and appropriate in the circumstances.
- (h) If, either at the close of nominations or (if applicable) after the opportunity to remedy defective nominations has elapsed, there are no more valid nominations for positions than there are vacancies, the Returning Officer shall declare the nominee or nominees elected.

If any such request is made, the request and State Council's decision on it shall be advised to all members (so far as is reasonably practicable). In no circumstance may the time between the opening and closing of nominations be less than one month. In no circumstance may the time that the ballot is open for be less than one month. Insofar as any such variation would mean that the time between the declaration of candidates in an election and the next election shall be less than 3 years, this rule prevails over any rule that provides that elections shall be held every 3 years.
