the allowances and penalties payable had the employee not been on leave during the relevant period, whichever is the greater.

1.5.2.2 If employed as a shift worker or a seven-day week worker (i.e. an employee who is working rotating shifts on seven days a week, or who is rostered to work regularly on active duties on Saturdays, Sundays and public holidays), either;

a loading of 20 percent of salary up to a maximum of $912.97 for any one full entitlement of annual leave,

or

whichever is the greater.

1.5.2.3 An employee who is employed for part of a year as a shift worker or a seven day week worker is to be paid a loading as prescribed in 1.5.2.2 on a pro rata basis for completed months worked as a shift worker or a seven-day week worker and for the balance to be paid a loading as prescribed in 1.5.2.1.

NOTE: On 19/08/2019 SAET stayed the operation of this clause 1.5:

55. Pursuant to s 69(2) of the South Australian Employment Tribunal Act 2014, the declaration and orders of 1 May 2019 are stayed pending the Full Court of the Supreme Court of South Australia making orders that finally determine and dispose of the appeal instituted by the SA Government in action number SCCIV 528 of 2019: The Treasurer for the State of South Australia and the Chief Executive, Department of Premier and Cabinet v United Trades and Labor Council of South Australia (Trading as SA Unions) (“the appeal proceedings”).

56. That the Chief Executive, Department of Treasury and Finance as the current declared employer of public sector employees under the Fair Work Act 1994, and any other public sector employing entity of South Australia, be relieved from any obligation and not required, to give effect to the declaration and orders of 1 May 2019 (including the effect of any amendments made to any Award pursuant to Order D) until such time as the Full Court of the Supreme Court of South Australia makes orders that finally determine and dispose of the appeal proceedings.
