
INDEPENDENT EDUCATION UNION (SOUTH AUSTRALIA) INCORPORATED

CONSTITUTION

(As amended at AGM 18 June 2020)

1. NAME AND DEFINITION

1.1 The name of the Union shall be Independent Education Union (South Australia) Incorporated, hereinafter referred to as the Union.

1.2 For the purposes of these rules a Non-Government School shall mean a school registered as a non-government school (and separate sections thereof) registered pursuant to part V of the South Australian Education Act 1972 as amended or replaced.

1.3 For the purposes of these rules whenever the singular form is used it is assumed to apply to the plural and whenever the plural form is used it is assumed to apply to the singular.

1.4 For the purposes of these rules 'the federal Union' shall mean the Independent Education Union of Australia, an organisation registered pursuant to the provisions of the Fair Work Act 2009 (Commonwealth) as amended or replaced.

2. INDUSTRY

2.1 The Union is formed in, or in connection with the industry of education.

3. OBJECTS and POWERS

3.1 To uphold the rights and to foster, protect and improve the rights and interests of members industrially, professionally and otherwise.

3.2 To obtain and secure for its members the best possible conditions and proper and sufficient remuneration and to guard them against any hardship, oppression or injustice in connection with their employment.

3.3 To encourage and foster improvement in the status, training and qualifications of all members.

3.4 Notwithstanding anything in this constitution to actively support Non-Government Schools and their right to financial support by State and Federal Governments up to the cost of educating children in Government schools.

3.5 To support the right of parents to choose to educate their children at independent and Catholic schools and the rights of children in such schools to receive education of the highest quality possible.

3.6 To support the appropriate level of government funding of public education including kindergarten, pre-school education, primary and secondary education as well as tertiary education and adult education.

3.7 To secure the participation and influence of members in the administration, development and planning of education.

3.8 To speak authoritatively for members.

3.9 To co-operate with and assist other organisations, associations, institutions and groups in the pursuit of these objectives.

3.10 To provide financial assistance to members and their dependants in the pursuit of these objectives.

3.11 To provide legal assistance to members at the Union's sole and absolute discretion.

3.12 To provide from time to time such services to and for members as shall be determined.

3.13 To establish funds for the mutual assistance and support of members in the carriage of these objects.

3.14 To acquire land and other property, real and personal, for the use and benefit of the Union. To sell, exchange or dispose of any such land and property.

3.15 To raise money by contributions or levies for the purpose of carrying out the objects of the Union.

3.16 To borrow and raise money in such a manner as may be determined from time to time by the Union.

3.17 To invest the funds of the Union.

3.18 To elect, appoint and employ officers, professional officers and other employees for the furtherance of the Union's objects and to remunerate such persons by salaries, wages, honoraria and other payments and benefits.

3.19 To make contributions to the financing of superannuation schemes or retirement funds for the benefit of the elected, appointed and employed officers and to enter into such arrangements as may be necessary for that purpose or those purposes.

3.20 To receive any gift of property, whether real or personal, whether subject to any trust or not for any one or more of the objects of the Union.

3.21 To undertake and execute any trusts or any agency business which is directly conducive to any object of the Union.

3.22 To subscribe to any charity or to make any donations for any public purpose or for any purposes in direct or indirect furtherance of any object of the Union.

3.23 To inculcate amongst staff members in non-government schools a corporate spirit and a sentiment of community of interests and purpose.

3.24 To do all such lawful things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects.

3.25 The Association shall have all the powers conferred by section 25 of the Associations Incorporation Act 1985.

4. MEMBERSHIP

4.1 Eligibility for Membership

4.5 Register of Members

There shall be kept a Register of Members by the Secretary at the principal office of the Union wherein shall be entered the details contained in the application of all members together with details as to their financial standing or otherwise. For the purpose of this rule "member" shall include life member and retired member.

4.5.1 The Union shall maintain a principal office at 213-215 Currie Street, Adelaide, 5000 or such other place as determined by Executive which shall be opened to the public between the hours of 10am and 4pm weekdays or at such times as are published on the Union's website or otherwise.

4.6 Dual membership with the federal Union.

4.6.1 An application to become a member of the Union (Independent Education Union (South Australia) Incorporated) is also (subject to eligibility) an application to become a member of the South Australian Branch of the federal Union (Independent Education Union (South Australia) Branch) unless the applicant notifies the Secretary in writing that they do not wish to have dual membership with the federal Union.

4.6.2 The fee payable for membership of the Union alone is the same as that payable for dual membership with the federal Union.

5. GOVERNMENT

5.1 Annual General Meeting and Special Conferences

5.1.1 The affairs of the Union shall be under the control of the Annual General Meeting and Special Conferences of financial members.

5.1.2 Executive shall deal with and be responsible for all matters in relation to the Annual General Meeting or the Special Conference.

5.1.3 The quorum for an Annual General Meeting or Special Conference shall be ~~25~~ 15 financial members.

5.1.4 At Annual General Meetings and Special Conferences a resolution shall be passed by simple majority of those present and voting, save that a motion to alter these rules requires a two thirds majority of those present and voting.

5.2 Annual General Meeting

5.2.1 The Annual General Meeting shall be held each year at such time and place as shall be determined by the executive giving 70 days' notice of such Annual General Meeting to members. At each Annual General Meeting the annual report and financial statements shall be submitted.

5.2.2 Notices of motion for the Annual General Meeting shall reach the Secretary not later than 42 days prior to the date of meeting in each year. All members shall have at least 21 days' notice of Notices of Motion.

5.2.3 The minutes of each Annual General Meeting shall be published to members as soon as practicable after being confirmed by a meeting of executive no later than the second ordinary scheduled meeting of the Executive after the Annual General Meeting.

5.3 Special Conference

5.3.1 Executive may at any time on its own resolution and shall upon a requisition by 50 financial members of the Union call a Special Conference and shall fix the time and place for holding such Special Conference in the form of notice to be given, provided that at any Special Conference, only such business as is stated in the notice convening the meeting shall be dealt with.

5.3.1.1 Executive shall give 21 days' notice of Special Conferences to all members.

5.3.2 Where a Special Conference is called upon a requisition signed by 50 financial members of the Union as aforesaid the requisition shall specify what is to be discussed at such Special Conference.

5.3.3 Amendments without notice may be put and discussed at Special Conference, provided that they conform to the requirements of rule 5.32 above.

5.4 Plebiscite

5.4.1 Annual General Meetings or Special Conferences may resolve by a majority to refer any question or motion before it or any decision reached by it to a plebiscite of financial members of the Union.

5.4.1.1 The result of any plebiscite in which the question is carried by a simple majority of members voting shall be binding upon the membership and shall become policy.

5.4.1.2 There shall be provided a period of not less than four school weeks for the preparation and dissemination of information on matters in question in any plebiscite.

5.4.1.3 Executive shall make available such resources of the Union as it shall, from time to time, see fit equally to selected parties for the preparation of affirmative and negative "cases" pertinent to any plebiscite.

5.4.1.4 The period of time allowed for distribution of voting papers and closing time of ballot to be determined at the Annual General Meeting, or Special Conference at which the decision to hold a plebiscite is taken but that time be not less than fourteen (14) days.

5.5 Branches

5.5.1 A Branch shall mean all financial members of the Union (excluding Principals and Deputies however called) who work together in the same workplace or Special Interest group as defined from time to time by the Executive of the Union.

5.5.1.1 One Special Interest Branch defined by the Executive includes all Principals and Deputies (however called) who are financial members of the Union.

5.5.2 Each workplace is to have only one Branch unless the Executive of the Union has specifically authorised the establishment of more than one Branch in the best interest of the members at that workplace.

5.5.3 Members of the Union at each Branch must elect, from among themselves, one or more Union Branch Representatives biennially. Upon a/the position becoming vacant during a term of office the position/s shall be filled by election for the remainder of the original term.

5.5.4 The functions of a Union Branch Representative are:

5.5.4.1 To make every effort to enrol all persons at the workplace who are eligible to be members of the Union.

5.5.4.2 To act as a medium of communication between members and the Union office.

5.5.4.3 To post on a notice-board or otherwise disseminate to members the full content of notices or other correspondence sent by the Union.

5.5.4.4 To convene meetings of the Branch as necessary.

5.5.4.5 To support or arrange support for Branch members who may have problems requiring the assistance of the Union.

5.5.4.6 To communicate with the management of the workplace on matters of concern to members of the Branch.

5.5.4.7 To participate in professional development or training to support their functioning as a Union Branch Representative.

5.5.4.8 To facilitate the holding of elections for the position of Union Branch Representative/s as and when they fall due by calling for the Branch to elect a member who is not standing for election to be returning officer.

5.5.4.9 To promote the Objects of the Union.

5.5.5 Members of the Branch may elect, from among themselves, more than one Union Branch Representative. Where more than one Union Branch Representative is elected the Branch may determine that such representatives are elected by and from distinct occupational groupings or distinct worksites.

5.5.6 At meetings of the Branch, twenty-five percent of the members or fifteen members, whichever is the lesser, are required to attend in order to form a quorum. All questions are to be decided by a majority of the votes of the members present and voting.
