The processes provided herein facilitate a fair and orderly framework to deal with matters involving disciplinary action and unsatisfactory work performance. In particular these arrangements should ensure that prior to any decision being taken to dismiss an employee (on those grounds) the employee is afforded proper procedural fairness and natural justice.

In this respect the following processes will be applied:

38.1 Informal Processes

Before embarking upon the formal prior warning process the employer may (having regard to the circumstances) consider it more appropriate to deal with the issue by way of verbal warning, reprimand or through counselling. These incidents are ancillary to the formal prior warning process.

38.2 Formal Warnings

These arrangements apply to the formal process by the employer to seriously address matters of unacceptable or unsatisfactory performance, misdemeanour or misconduct which does not warrant summary dismissal.

38.2.2. In the case of unacceptable or unsatisfactory performance, misconduct or misdemeanour the employee should have the opportunity to put their side of the matter as part of the process;

- 38.2.4. The employer should be satisfied (following proper consideration or investigation) of the grounds for issuing formal written warnings;
- 38.2.5. Following investigation, if the employer believes that a formal written warning is appropriate, the employee will be advised verbally that they will receive such;
- 38.2.6. A first written warning will be given to the employee detailing the nature of the complaint(s);
- 38.2.7. A copy of the warning will be placed on the employee's file.

- 38.2.8. Should further misdemeanour, unacceptable conduct or unsatisfactory performance recur or continue (provided that it is within the period of relevance of twelve (12) months of the first written warning) a second and final written warning will be given to the employee. Such warning should make it clear that continued unacceptable performance, conduct or misdemeanour may result in dismissal
- 38.2.9. In cases of serious breach of health and safety policies or misconduct the period of relevance may be extended beyond twelve (12) months.
- 38.2.10. The formal written warning will include a clear statement in relation to the period of relevance.

38.3 Proposed Dismissal

- 38.3.1. The employer will carry out a prior investigation into relevant matters which is sufficient for the purposes of making such decision to dismiss
- 38.3.2. Prior to the decision being made the employee shall have the opportunity to consider the complaint(s) or allegation and respond if he/she so chooses
- 38.3.3. An employee may be assisted in such response by another employee or Union representative
- 38.3.4. Where the decision is contemplated as a result of continuing unsatisfactory performance and/or conduct there will be a need to demonstrate prior warning in respect of such performance or conduct

- Redeployment to a position of a lower classification level;
 - Or

- 39.3 If Council is required to reduce numbers, its preference will be by natural attrition rather than redundancy.
- When there is natural attrition the responsibilities of the position may be redistributed throughout the organisation.
- 39.4 Where redeployment takes place the employer will, as a matter of priority provide training to assist the redeployed employee into the new position.
