The Employer and Employees recognise that ongoing change is a feature of the work environment and that appropriate consultation on the management of significant change is essential. For the purpose of this Agreement, 'significant change' will be deemed to include, but not limited to:

- Change in workforce size and/or structure
- Amalgamation with other organisations
- Consideration of alternative service delivery

Council shall consult with affected Employees and their chosen representatives, and ensure that all relevant information concerning proposed change is communicated to them as an integral part of this process.

One of the aims of this consultation will be to raise issues and canvass options that may serve to mitigate against any adverse effects on Employees that may arise as a result of such change.

Council shall provide in writing to the Employees and their chosen representatives an impact statement concerning the proposed change, including the expected effects on Employees.

Consultation must commence as early as practicable after a definite decision has been made by Council to make a change.

Council must give prompt and genuine consideration on matters raised about the significant change by the relevant employees.

2.2. Employee Representatives

The Employer and Employees accept the role of Employee representatives in problem solving, negotiating, communicating and promoting a spirit of cooperation between Employees and management. - Negotiate, when requested, on behalf of Employees in the workplace.
- Be permitted access to the Council Intranet for posting authorised information pertaining to the employment relationship.

The purpose of this Dispute Settlement Procedure is to allow all parties to this Agreement a system to discuss and resolve all matters of grievance and dispute arising out of matters with this Agreement. The Employer and Employees agree to use all stages in the Dispute Settlement Procedure to ensure that all issues receive prompt attention and are resolved if possible, by conciliation at the enterprise level.

- 2.3.1. During the implementation of the Dispute Resolution Procedure, work within the Council will proceed without stoppage or the imposition of any bans, work limitations or restrictions. The provisions of the applicable Work Health and Safety Legislation apply independently of this clause.
- 2.3.2. At each stage of this procedure a record should be made of the time and date of discussions and relevant outcomes. Such records should be signed off as accurate by the Employee/s and Employer.

Stage One

The Employee/s and/or chosen Employee representative will contact the relevant manager notifying him/her that a dispute exists and attempt to settle the issue at that level.

Stage Two

If the issue is not settled at Stage One, the Employee/s and, if requested, a representative of the Employee's choice will meet with their Manager, the Manager, People and the relevant Departmental Head.

Where possible the process contained in Stages One (1) and Two (2) should be completed with five (5) working days of the issue being raised at Stage One to ensure its expedient resolution.

Stage Three

3.2. Probationary Period

- 3.2.1. All appointments shall be subject to a probationary period of employment of six (6) months from initial engagement with the Employer.

- 3.3.2. The Employer and Employees recognise that, from time to time, specific circumstances occur which warrant the extended use of casual Employees in a particular position.
- 3.3.3. Council will not use casual Employees on an ongoing basis as an alternative to the direct employment of full-time or part-time Employees.

- 3.3.4. Casual Employees who have been in continuous employment with Council for a period exceeding three (3) months shall be given the opportunity to apply for internally advertised positions.
- 3.3.5. Casual Employees shall be entitled to be paid a loading of twenty five percent (25%) in addition to the appropriate ordinary time hourly rate for the normal duties involved.
- 3.3.6. If, during the life of this Agreement, the award is varied or replaced, and the local government industry adopts a higher casual loading, then the Employer will make adjustments, including any recommended phased implementation, in accordance with the award.
- 3.3.7. The loading compensates the casual Employee for the non-applicability of leave entitlements (other than Long Service Leave where applicable) and payment for public holidays not worked.
- 3.3.8. A casual Employee shall be entitled to overtime or penalty payment in respect of work performed outside ordinary time hours of work or in excess of the ordinary hours of work provided for in this Agreement. - 3.4. Part Time /Job Share/Pre-Retirement Employment

Such applications may include, but are not limited to, requests from Employees returning from paid or unpaid maternity leave and Employees seeking a transition to retirement.
  - 3.4.2. Any approved arrangement shall be the subject of a contractual agreement.
  - 3.4.3. Where the hours of work for part time Employees are extended by mutual agreement, the additional hours worked will be subject to the terms of Clause 5.1 (Hours of Work).
  - 3.4.4. Part time Employees shall progress through the incremental steps of the classification levels each 12 months following their anniversary date.
  - 3.4.5. An Employee wishing to negotiate a transition to retirement part-time contract of employment, which may be for a period of up to three (3) years, shall make a request to the relevant Departmental Head. That Departmental Head shall consider whether such a part time employment arrangement is compatible with reasonable operational arrangements and make a recommendation to the CEO. If the arrangement is approved by the CEO, the arrangement shall be formalised through a revised contract of employment.
  - 3.4.6. The provisions of this Agreement shall apply on a pro rata basis to all part-time Employees.

3.5. Fixed Term Employment

3.5.5. Through workforce planning or change management process, the Employer may offer or a permanent Employee may apply to have his/her permanent appointment changed to a fixed term appointment for a period of up to five (5) years. - 3.6.4. The required amount of payment in lieu of notice must equal or exceed the total of all amounts that, if the Employee's employment had continued until the end of the required period of notice, the Employer would have become liable to pay to the Employee because of the employment continuing during that period. That total must be calculated on the basis of:
- 3.6.4.1. the Employee's ordinary hours of work (even if not standard hours);
  - 3.6.4.2. the amounts ordinarily payable to the Employee in respect of those hours, including (for example) allowances, loading and penalties; and

- 3.9.4. Where an Employee has been acting in a higher position for a continuous period of at least 12 months immediately preceding the notice of redundancy, the salary level shall be the Employee's salary in such higher position at that date.
- 3.9.5. Redeployment

3.9.13. Clause 3.9 does not apply to:

- 3.9.13.1. Employees terminated as a consequence of serious misconduct that justifies dismissal without notice;

- 3.9.13.3. apprentices;
- 3.9.13.4. trainees or cadets;
- 3.9.13.5. Employees' engaged for a specific fixed-term contract under clause 3.5; or

17. Appendix 2 – Classification Criteria Municipal Officers

17.1. A2.1. Classification

- A2.1.1. The aim of the classification process is to ensure as far as practicable, that work features, responsibilities, skills, knowledge, experience and qualifications are evaluated in comparable terms irrespective of discipline. The salary structure encompasses Employees engaged in work of an administrative, community, environmental, technical or professional nature.
- A2.1.2. The first step in establishing the most appropriate classification for a position involves the gathering and documenting of information about the position and describing it in a form that can be used to compare the job with the classification criteria. The quality and extent of the information gathered is very important in this process, as it will be used to determine the appropriate classification for the position.
- A2.1.3. Based on the information gathered, a job description will be prepared specifying the responsibilities, duties, skills knowledge and/or experience required in the position.
- A2.1.4. After the job description is complete a systematic comparison with the classification criteria will to be undertaken. This assessment is used to determine the appropriate classification of the position.
- A2.1.5. All officers will be classified in accordance with the General Officer structure or on the basis of a negotiated salary for Senior Officers.
- A2.1.6. To facilitate the ready and precise classification of all occupations, classification criteria have been developed describing the General Features, General Responsibilities, Specific Responsibilities and Skills Knowledge, Experience and Qualifications and/or Training. There are eight distinctive levels within the structure.
- A2.1.7. When classifying a position all aspects of the job must be considered against the total classification criteria and the classification level. The total responsibilities of the position must be compared with the total responsibilities of the level, rather than comparison with selected parts.
- A2.1.8. The job description will be tested against more than one level for appropriateness.
