The merit of such application will be determined in the light of the particular circumstances of each case and the impact on employment at the enterprise level of the increase in labour costs is a significant factor to be taken into account in assessing the merit of any application. A party may make such an application under s 31A of the South Australian Employment Tribunal Act 2014 (the SAET Act) in the form approved under rule 34 of the South Australian Employment Tribunal Rules 2022. 6.1.1.2 Payment must not be made or accepted in lieu of taking annual leave, except in the case of termination of employment.

6.1.2 Annual leave exclusive of public holidays

The annual leave prescribed by this clause is exclusive of the public holidays named in this Award that fall on a Monday to Friday inclusive. If any such holiday falls within an employee's period of annual leave, the period of leave will be increased by one day for each holiday.

6.1.3 Accrual of annual leave entitlement

6.1.3.1 An employee's entitlement to annual leave accrues as follows for each completed year of continuous service:

(a) Full-time employees:

152 hours per annum.

(b) Part-time employees:

$\frac{152}{38} \times \text{average weekly ordinary hours over previous 12 months} = \text{hours per annum}$

6.1.3.2 Upon termination of employment, if the period of service is not exactly divisible into complete years, a full-time employee accrues 12 2/3 hours annual leave for each completed month of service in the incomplete year. A part-time employee accrues such annual leave on a pro-rata basis.

6.1.4 Time of taking annual leave

6.1.4.1 Annual leave is to be taken at a time or times agreed between the employer and the employee. Notwithstanding the provisions of this clause and without the intention of disrupting continuous period(s) of annual leave, by agreement between the employer and employee, a full-time employee may take annual leave in single day periods not exceeding 10 days in any calendar year for the purposes of personal leave to care for a family member as set out in clause 6.3.

6.1.4.2 If an employer and an employee fail to agree on the time (or times) for taking annual leave, or part of it, the employer may require the employee to take annual leave by giving the employee notice of the requirement at least 2 weeks before the period of annual leave is to begin.

If so requested by an employee, the employer may allow annual leave to an employee before the right thereto has accrued. Where leave is taken in such a case, a further period of annual leave will not commence to accrue until after the expiration of the 12 months in respect of which annual leave had been taken before it accrued.

6.1.7 Termination prior to 12 months service, where annual leave is taken before due date

Where annual leave has been granted to an employee pursuant to clause 6.1.1 and the employee subsequently leaves or is discharged from the service of the employer before completing the 12 months continuous service in respect of which the annual leave was granted, the employer may deduct the amount of such excess from any remuneration payable.

6.1.8 Annual leave loading

6.1.8.1 Each weekly employee before going on any period of annual leave will for each week of such leave be paid a loading at the rate of 17.5% of the ordinary weekly wage prescribed for such employees. Such loading will be in addition to the amount paid to the employee under this clause.

6.1.8.2 No loading is payable to an employee who takes annual leave wholly or partly in advance; provided that, if the employment of such an employee continues until the day when they would have become entitled to annual leave, the loading then becomes payable in respect of the period of such leave and is to be calculated by applying the ordinary rate of pay applicable on that day.

6.1.8.3 No loading is payable for periods of service of less than 12 months.

6.1.8.4 When the employment of an employee is terminated by their employer for a cause other than misconduct, and at the time of the termination the employee has not taken the whole of the annual leave to which they became entitled, they must be paid the loading for the period of leave not taken.

6.1.9 Shut down

6.1.9.1 Where an employer requires the business operation, or part of it, to be temporarily shut down the employer may require the employee to take annual leave by giving the employee notice of the requirement of at least 2 months before the period of annual leave is to begin.

6.1.9.2 No more than two shut downs can occur in one calendar year.

6.1.9.3 Where:

(a) an employee is unable to attend work because of a shut down; and

(b) that employee has not accrued a full year of entitlement to annual leave, that employee must be allowed to take pro rata annual leave calculated in accordance with the formula specified in clause 6.1.3.2.

- S4.9 The apprentice wage scales are based on a standard full-time apprenticeship of four years (unless the apprenticeship is of three years duration). The rate of progression reflects the average rate of skill acquisition expected from the typical combination of work and training for a school-based apprentice undertaking the applicable apprenticeship.
- S4.10 If an apprentice converts from school-based to full-time, all time spent as a full-time apprentice will count for the purposes of progression through the relevant wage scale in addition to the progression achieved as a school-based apprentice.
