- 2.1.6 When this Award is varied to give effect to an agreement made pursuant to this clause the variation becomes a schedule to this Award and the variation takes precedence over any provision of this Award to the extent of any expressly identified inconsistency.

4.4.4.4 Additional severance pay for employees aged over 45 years with 10 years or more continuous service

In addition to the severance pay in 4.4.4.3 an employee with not less than 10 years continuous service, who is over the age of 45 years, is entitled to an additional 4 weeks severance pay.

* Week's pay is defined in 4.4.1.

4.4.4.5 Continuity of service will be calculated in the manner prescribed by clause 1.7.

4.4.4.6 The severance payment need not exceed the amount which the employee would have earned if employment with the employer had proceeded to the employee's agreed date of retirement or the employee's eligibility date for social security benefits.

4.4.4.7 An employer may apply to the Commission for an order allowing the off-setting of all or part of an employee's entitlement to severance payment on the basis that such payment or part thereof is already provided for or included in the contributions which the employer has made over and above those required by law to a superannuation scheme and which are paid or payable to the employee on redundancy occurring.

4.4.5 Time off during notice period

During the period of notice of termination given by the employer, an employee must be allowed up to one day of time off without loss of pay during each week of notice for the purpose of seeking other employment.

If the employee has been allowed paid leave for more than one day during the notice period for the purpose of seeking other employment, the employee must, at the request of the employer, be required to produce proof of attendance at an interview or the employee must not receive payment for the time absent. For this purpose a statutory declaration will be sufficient.

The time off during notice period entitlements under this clause 4.4.5 apply in lieu of the provisions of clause 4.3.2.

4.4.6 Alternative employment

An employer in a particular redundancy case, may make application to the Commission to have the severance pay prescription varied if the employer obtains acceptable alternative employment for an employee.

4.4.7 Employee leaving during notice

An employee whose employment is terminated on account of redundancy may terminate their employment during the period of notice and, if so, is entitled to the same benefits and payments under this clause had the employee remained with the employer until the expiry of such notice. In such circumstances, the employee must not be entitled to payment in lieu of notice.

4.4.8 Written notice

The employer must, as soon as practicable, but prior to the termination of the employee's employment, give to the employee a written notice containing, among other things, the following:

- (a) The date and time of the proposed termination of the employee's employment;
- (b) Details of the monetary entitlements of the employee upon the termination of the employee's employment including the manner and method by which those entitlements have been calculated;
- (c) Advice as to the entitlement of the employee to assistance from the employer, including time off without loss of pay in seeking other employment, or arranging training or retraining for future employment; and
- (d) Advice as to the entitlements of the employee should the employee terminate their employment during the period of notice.

4.4.9 Payment in lieu treated as service

If an employer makes payment in lieu for all or any of the period of notice prescribed, then the period for which such payment is made must be treated as service for the purposes of computing any service related entitlements of the employee arising pursuant to this Award and must be deemed to be service with the employer for the purposes of the Long Service Leave Act 1987, as amended.

4.4.10 Transfer to lower paid duties

Where an employee whose job has become redundant accepts an offer of alternative work by the employer the rate of pay for which is less than the rate of pay for the former position, the employee must be entitled to the same period of notice of the date of commencement of work in the new position as if the employee's employment had been terminated, and the employer may at the employer's option, make payment in lieu thereof of an amount equal to the difference between the former rate of pay and the new lower rate for the number of weeks of notice still owing.

4.4.11 Employees with less than one year of service

This clause does not apply to employees with less than 1 year of continuous service and the general obligation of employers should be no more than to give relevant employees an indication of the impending redundancy at the first reasonable opportunity, and to take such steps as may be reasonable to facilitate the obtaining by the employees of suitable alternative employment.

4.4.12 Employees exempted

This clause does not apply where employment is terminated as a consequence of conduct that at common law justifies instant dismissal or in the case of casual employees or employees engaged for a specific period of time or for a specified task or tasks.

4.4.13 Incapacity to pay

The Commission may vary the severance pay prescription on the basis of an employer's incapacity to pay. An application for variation may be made by an employer or a group of employers.

4.4.14 Transmission of business

The provisions of this clause are not applicable where a transmission of business occurs and the conditions of 4.5.2 or 4.5.3 are met.

4.4.15 Contrived arrangements

Subject to an order of the Commission, where an employer contrives arrangements wholly or partly to deprive employees of the severance pay set out in 4.4.4.3 or 4.4.4.4, then the employees will be entitled to the severance pay set out in those clauses in lieu of that set out in 4.4.4.2.

PART 5 - WAGES AND RELATED MATTERS

CLAUSE 5.1 CLASSIFICATION OF EMPLOYEES

OPDATE 13:12:2005 on and from

The intention of this range of duties, is to achieve multi skilled employees. This will remove lines of demarcation to enable them to perform a range of duties at the classification level to which they have been appointed, meet the identified requirements of employers; and describe the conditions under which they are to be performed.

The Characteristics set out in Schedule 1 are the primary guide to classification, as they indicate the level of basic knowledge, comprehension of issues, problems and procedures required and the level of supervision or accountability of the position. The content of the characteristics must be read as a whole to obtain a clear understanding of the essential feature of any particular level and the competency required. It is expected as a core component of the Characteristics that employees will be responsible for performing all tasks relevant to the position they have been classified or appointed to. The classification will be based on the degree of competency and learning necessary for that Characteristic Level. Consistent with this requirement they will be encouraged to take part in identifying and making suggestions on workplace issues.

The indicative duties set out in Schedule 1 are a non-exhaustive list of duties/skills that may be undertaken within the particular characteristic level and are an indicative guide only. Employees at any particular characteristic level may be expected to undertake duties of any level lower than their own. Employees at any particular characteristic level may perform/utilise one such duty, or many of them, depending on the particular work allocated.

Subject to training and work availability employees will be given an opportunity to participate in on-going skills training to enable them to progress. This process will occur relevant to the work the employer requires to be completed and the organisational needs. It is expected that training made available will be recognised by the Health Industry.

- 6.1.11.1 An employee required to work on a day otherwise nominated as a programmed day off, or where that employee has not been offered the facility of "banking" the programmed day, the employee must be paid for the actual hours worked according to the overtime provisions of this Award.

6.1.11.2 Banking procedure

6.1.11.2(a) Where the option of a programmed day off is adopted in implementing the 38 hour week, a full-time employee may seek to defer or be requested to defer or bank for up to six months that programmed day off providing that such "banking" is by mutual agreement between the employer and the employee.

6.1.11.2(b) No more than five programmed days off may be "banked" at any given time.

6.1.11.3(c) Deferred programmed days off may be taken as time-off as single days, or as a block in a manner mutually agreed between the employer and the employee.

Such grounds might include cost, lack of adequate replacement staff, loss of efficiency and the impact on customer service.

7.4.15.3 The employee's request and the employer's decision made under 7.4.15.1(b) and (c) must be recorded in writing.

7.4.15.4 Where an employee wishes to make a request under 7.4.15.1(c), such a request must be made as soon as possible but no less than seven weeks prior to the date upon which the employee is due to return to work from parental leave.
