- (14) "ordinary member of Council" means a person elected to a position on the State Council pursuant to the provisions of sub-rules 14 (2) (a) to (o).

4. The Industry

The industry in and in connection with which the Association is formed is the occupation or calling of ambulance work carried on in South Australia and including work engaged in connection with or ancillary to such ambulance work.

5. Objects

The objects of the Association are:

- (1) To uphold the rights and to improve, protect, and foster the interests of members.
- (2) To formulate and carry into operation schemes for the industrial, social intellectual and general advancement of members.
- (3) To preserve to members the rights of submission to arbitration of claims in relation to wages and conditions of employment.
- (4) To assist by affiliation or by co-operation or otherwise, kindred organisations in upholding and advancing the rights, privileges and welfare of ambulance employees.
- (5) To maintain a publication to promote the objects of the Association.
- (6) To afford opportunity to discuss matters affecting the welfare, rights and interests of members.
- (7) To act as a medium for the expression of professional opinion on any matters relating to employment in ambulance services in South Australia.
- (8) To elect officers and to employ employees for the furtherance of the objects of the Association and to remunerate such officers and employees by salaries, wages, honoraria and other emoluments, including contributions to and financing of superannuation schemes or retirement funds for the benefit of such officers and employees, and to enter into such agreements as may be necessary for the carrying out of this purpose.
- (9) To take steps under the laws to advance or protect the rights of members in connection with their employment collectively or individually.

PART 2 – MEMBERSHIP

6. Eligibility

Any person employed as an ambulance employee in South Australia is entitled to be a member of the Association, together with such other persons whether employees engaged in the industry or not, as have been elected officers of the Association, and who have been admitted as members hereof.

7. Application for Membership

- (a) Each application for membership shall be made on an approved form, and shall be lodged with the General Secretary of the Association for admission.
- (b) The General Secretary shall refer all applications for membership to the Council who shall admit the applicant as a member.

8. Register of Members

- (1) A register of the names and addresses of the officers and members of the Association shall be kept in the registered office of the Association. Any member changing their address shall inform the General Secretary of such change within four weeks.
- (2) The register of members shall clearly identify:
 - (a) in respect of State Council elections the electorates in which they are employed pursuant to sub-rules 14 (2) (a) to (o); and
 - (b) in respect of Shop Steward elections the electorates in which they are employed pursuant to sub-rules 21 (1) and (2).

9. Subscriptions

- (1) Subscriptions shall be annual for the period from the 1st day of July to the last day of June each year.
- (2) Prior to the end of May each year the Council shall review and set the annual subscription for the forthcoming financial year.
- (3) The annual subscription shall be payable by the end of April, except in cases where there exists an arrangement between the Association and the employer, whereby such members' subscriptions are deducted from salary.
- (4) A member joining the Association during the year shall pay only a pro rata subscription for the unexpired portion for that year.
- (5) The Council may remit the subscription in whole or in part, for such time as it decides, of any member unable to pay because of financial difficulty or illness.
- (6) A member who is not "financial" shall not be entitled to any benefit of the Association except at the direction of the State Council and shall be liable to have their name removed from the register if unfinancial for more than six months.

10. Resignation of Membership

- (1) A member may resign membership of the Association by notice in writing and delivered to the General Secretary if:
 - (a) The Notice is given not less than three months before the resignation is to take effect, and all subscriptions levies and other dues are paid to the date on which the resignation is to take effect;
 - (b) No person shall discontinue membership during the currency of any dispute or other proceedings in which the Association is concerned before an Industrial Tribunal; and
 - (c) No resignation shall be accepted by the General Secretary unless it is a valid notice pursuant to this rule.
- (2) Termination of membership shall be effected when a member ceases to be employed in or in connection with the industry of ambulance work.

11. Expulsion and Suspension

- (1) Any member charged with fraudulent or illegal conduct or with failure to comply with these rules or with conduct unbecoming of a member of the Association which conduct might have the tendency to bring the Association into ill repute may be summoned to appear before the State Council. Any member so charged shall have the right to speak in their own defence and to call witnesses on their behalf. If found guilty of the charge the Council may expel them or suspend them for a certain time or inflict such fine or other penalty as may seem just, but such penalty as is imposed shall be subject to review at the next ensuing General Meeting of the Association.
- (2) A notice specifying the charge addressed by pre-paid registered letter to the address of the member appearing in the books of the Association through the Post Office fourteen (14) days prior to the investigation shall be deemed sufficient notice of the charge. No member who has been expelled shall be re-admitted without the consent of the State Council thereto first had and obtained, and such consent shall be subject to confirmation at the next General Meeting of the Association.

12. Control of Association by Members

- (1) Final control of the Association in relation to all matters shall rest with the decision of the financial members of the Association in a plebiscite conducted under these rules and every such decision shall bind;
 - (a) The State Council;
 - (b) The Executive Committee; and
 - (c) All members of the Union.
- (2) All powers conferred by these rules are conferred subject to this rule but nothing in this or any other rule shall empower the decision of a plebiscite to affect or alter a declaration by the Returning Officer of the result of an election of plebiscite.

13. Life Membership

- (1) The Council may confer life membership on any member who has at least ten years continuous service as a member of the Council or as a Shop Steward and who has given outstanding and meritorious service to the Association. A life member still working in the industry of the Association shall have all the rights and duties of a member of the Association, provided that life members shall not be required to pay subscriptions or levies required by these rules.
- (2) The Council may confer honorary membership on any person who has given outstanding and meritorious service to the Association. An honorary member shall not have the rights and duties afforded to an ordinary member of the Association.
- (3) The council may cancel any such life or honorary membership.

PART 3 – GOVERNMENT

- (7) Ballot papers shall set out the names of the candidates for an election of the respective officers and electorates.

- (8) In a plebiscite the Returning Officer shall formulate the matter or matters the subject of the plebiscite in the form of proposals as proposed or decision which has been made under these rules. Ballot papers for a plebiscite shall set out each proposal or decision to be determined and shall provide for satisfactory wording which will accurately reflect the intention of the plebiscite.
- (9) In an election the Returning Officer shall issue instructions as follows;
 - (a) This is a ballot paper/s for an election in the Ambulance Employees Association of South Australia. To vote for a candidate in an office or an electorate you should place the figure '1' opposite your candidate of first choice and give preference votes for the remaining candidates by placing figures 2, 3, 4, etc opposite their names so as to indicate your order of preference for them. Failure to so indicate the order of your preference will not render invalid your vote for the candidate(s) of your choice. However if the candidate(s) who you do vote for are eliminated at an early stage of the count then your vote will not have the same force and effect as a voter who has expressed the order of their preference for all candidates. After voting you should, as applicable, submit your ballot electronically, or place the ballot paper(s) in the stamped, addressed envelope provided and post it so it will reach the private box to which it is addressed by (set out the time and date on which the ballot closes)
- (10) In a plebiscite the Returning Officer shall issue instructions to the following effect:
 - (a) This is a ballot paper for a plebiscite in the Ambulance Employees Association of South Australia. To vote in favour of a proposal or decision you should place an 'X' opposite the word 'yes'. To vote against a proposal or decision you should place an 'X' opposite the word 'No'. After voting you should, as applicable, submit your ballot electronically, or place the ballot paper in the stamped addressed envelope provided and post it so it will reach the private box to which it is addressed by (set out the time and date on which the ballot closes).
- (11) Ballot papers will be deemed spoiled which:
 - (a) Show more candidates marked as voted for than permitted.
 - (b) Are defaced or mutilated so as to prevent the intention of the voter being ascertained.
- (12) The vote of a member shall not be informal:
 - (a) Only on account of the voter having indicated a preference for fewer than the number of candidates to be elected.
 - (b) Only on account of the voter having used a mark other than that decided upon to indicate their preference.
- (13)
 - (a) A candidate in any election may if they so desire appoint a scrutineer who is a financial member of the Association to represent them at the ballot. The candidate shall prior to the commencement of the ballot notify the Returning Officer in writing of the name of such scrutineer.
 - (b) A scrutineer shall be entitled to be present throughout the ballot and may query the inclusion or exclusion of any vote in the count, however the Returning Officer shall have final determination of any vote so queried.
 - (c) A scrutineer shall not be entitled to remove, mark, alter or deface any ballot paper or other document used in connection with the election.
 - (d) In respect of postal ballots, ballot papers shall not be opened except in the presence of the scrutineers unless they shall fail to attend after proper notice in writing has been given by the Returning Officer of the time and date of the closing of the ballot.
 - (e) In a plebiscite conducted by the Returning Officer the council shall appoint 2 scrutineers who shall with necessary modifications have the same powers and duties as in an election.
- (14) The ballot papers in an election shall be counted in accordance with the following provisions;

- (a) The Returning Officer shall count the ballot papers in the presence and subject to the inspection of such scrutineers who choose to be present and of no other person.
- (b) The Returning Officer shall group the ballot papers according to which candidate is preferred first, omitting informal ballot papers.
- (c) Where there is one person to be elected to an office or electorate:
 - (i) The Returning Officer shall count the first preference votes given for each candidate respectively;
 - (ii) The candidate who has received the greatest number of first preference votes if that number constitutes an absolute majority of first preference votes shall be declared elected;
 - (iii) If no candidate has an absolute majority of first preference votes the Returning Officer shall –
 - (1) Treat the candidate who has obtained the fewest first preference votes as a defeated candidate and such of the ballot papers counted to such defeated candidate as indicates the voters next preference shall be distributed amongst the non-defeated candidates next in order of the voters preference. After such distribution the number of voters given to each non defeated candidate shall again be counted;
 - (2) If no candidate then has an absolute majority of votes the process of treating the candidate who has the fewest votes as defeated and distributing such of that candidates ballot papers as indicate the voters next preference amongst the non-defeated candidates next in order of the voters preference shall be repeated and the voters recounted after every such redistribution until one candidate has obtained an absolute majority of votes and such candidate shall be declared elected.
 - (iv) If on the final count two or more candidates have received an equal number of votes the Returning Officer shall determine which of the candidates is elected by declaring the candidate who currently holds the office or electorate being contested to be elected. Should no candidate hold the office or electorate being contested the Returning Officer shall determine the result by casting lots.
- (d) Where there is more than one person to be elected to an office or an electorate:
 - (i) The Returning Officer shall count all first preference votes cast for each candidate and any candidate who has received an absolute majority of first preference votes shall be declared elected.
 - (ii) If no candidate has received an absolute majority of first preference votes the Returning Officer shall proceed to eliminate candidates and distribute preference votes as provided in paragraph (14) (c) (iii) (1) above until a candidate has an absolute majority of votes and is declared elected;
 - (iii) To determine the next successful candidate the Returning officer shall allocate the second preference votes of the candidate who has been elected, to each of the other candidates in accord with the voters preference including to the candidates eliminated pursuant to paragraph (14) c (iii) (1) above;
 - (iv) A candidate who then has an absolute majority of votes shall be declared elected but if no candidate then has an absolute majority of votes the count shall proceed as provided in paragraph (14) c (iii) (1) above until one candidate has received an absolute majority of votes and is elected;
 - (v) Any remaining vacancies shall be filled one by one in the manner provided above and any candidate receiving an absolute majority shall be declared elected. Provided that where the second preference votes of an elected candidate are given to another elected candidate the Returning Officer shall allocate the third preference vote of the first mentioned elected candidate to other candidates in accordance with the voter's third preference. This provision applies equally where second and succeeding preference votes are given to two or more elected candidates;

(vi) If on the final count two or more candidates have received an equal number of votes and one of them has to be elected or excluded, the Returning Officer shall determine which of the candidates is elected by declaring the candidate who currently holds the office being contested to be elected. Should none of the candidates hold the office being contested the Returning Officer shall determine the result by casting lots.

(e) The Returning Officer shall make and keep a record of:

- (i) The total number of votes counted;
- (ii) The number of ballot papers rejected as informal;
- (iii) The number of first preference votes given for each candidate;
- (iv) In relation to each distribution of the ballot papers of a defeated candidate:
 1. The number of ballot papers which did not show the voters next preferences; and
 2. The number of votes of each candidate after the distribution.
- (v) The number of ballot papers issued; and
- (vi) The number of ballot papers returned.

This record shall be signed by the Returning Officer and by such of the scrutineers as are present and consent to sign it.

(15) The counting of ballot papers in a plebiscite shall with necessary modifications be carried out in accordance with the provision of sub-rule 14 hereof. In the event of an equality of votes on any question or decision the question shall be deemed to have failed.
