46.2 General (Individual Employee Grievances)

46.2.1 Employee grievances shall be dealt with in the first instance between the Employee and the Supervisor for the relevant work area.

ORGANISATIONAL DEVELOPMENT

47. PERFORMANCE DEVELOPMENT AND REVIEW – PDR

- 47.1 The parties recognise that continuous improvement of service delivery is necessary and desirable to improve the efficiency of the organisation and customer service, and to provide job satisfaction and improve job security. The parties therefore commit to a work culture of analysis, innovation and improvement.
- 47.2 Within the spirit of Clause 47.1 above, the Employer and Employees are committed to ongoing effective implementation of the annual performance appraisal program to ensure all Employees are provided with timely and accurate feedback on both positive and negative aspects of job performance, as well as facilitating career and development opportunities for Employees.
- 47.3 The annual appraisals shall involve the relevant Manager/Supervisor and Employee reaching agreement over individual objectives and outcomes and identification of training and skill development requirements. Performance outcomes will be reviewed at six (6) monthly intervals and will be:
- simple and easy to communicate;
 - easy to collect;
 - limited in number to a manageable level; and
 - realistic and achievable.
- 47.4 Performance outcomes will have regard to the key focus areas identified in the Council's Strategic Plan.

48. LEARNING AND DEVELOPMENT

- 48.1 Learning and development is an essential long-term investment to ensure that Employees can make the most effective contribution to the business and can achieve their full personal potential.
- 48.2 The Employer encourages Employee participation in courses at recognised educational institutions and in training programs. Learning and Development is based on identified business needs and agreed individual professional development plans which form part of the Performance Development Review process. Career development is a partnership where Employees manage their individual development and the Employer provides opportunities, encouragement and assistance.
- 48.3 The parties also recognise that planning sessions and personal/professional development training programs, particularly those involving whole work groups can be disruptive to the efficient operation of the Employer and affect the maintenance of proper customer service. As a means of enabling greater flexibility in the provision of planning/training activities, and subject to agreement, the Employer may require Employees to attend selected activities conducted on weekday evenings (excluding Public Holidays and Library closed days for Library Employee) between the hours of 5.00 pm and 8.00 pm or on Saturdays between the hours of 8.00 am and 5.00 pm. Training shall not be conducted on a Saturday forming part of a weekend adjacent to a Public Holiday.
- 48.4 A minimum period of four (4) weeks' notice will be provided prior to any planning/training activity being conducted during the times set out above. Where possible, more than one opportunity to attend an activity will be provided. This arrangement should not be utilised in excess of 24 hours per year unless the Employee genuinely agrees otherwise.
- 48.5 Time spent on planning/training activities conducted during the times set out above shall, by mutual agreement, either be paid at ordinary time or taken as time off in lieu of payment at ordinary time (Refer Clause 20 "Flexible Working Arrangements"). Activities conducted on a Saturday will be for a minimum of three hours.
- 48.6 No other payments or penalties will apply with the exception of either provision of a meal by the Employer or payment of the appropriate meal allowance.

- 48.7 The Employer will provide child care or reimburse reasonable child care expenses incurred for Employees with family responsibilities who would be unable to attend such training without child care arrangement.
- 48.8 Assistance with special family circumstances will be considered on an individual basis prior to training taking place. In each instance the situation is to be discussed with the Employee's Manager.
- 48.9 No Employee shall be required to participate in a planning/training activity which in addition to their normal duties would require them to attend work in excess of 12 hours in any one (1) day.
- 48.10 Unless otherwise agreed, training that relates to the workplace health & safety of Employees will be conducted during normal working hours.
- 48.11 No Employee (including part-time Employees) shall be disadvantaged by the operation of this Clause in their access to training programs provided by the Employer.
- 48.12 Notwithstanding the above, the Employer may offer training opportunities for personal development outside of normal working hours in the Employee's own time on a voluntary basis.

SB.2 General Rule for Adoption Related Leave – Child must be under 16

SB.2.1 An Employee is not entitled to adoption-related leave unless the child that is, or is to be, placed with the Employee for adoption:

- (a) is, or will be, under 16 as at the day of placement, or the expected day of placement, of the child; and

SB.3.2 If there is a transfer of employment in relation to an Employee and the Employee has, in relation to the first employer, already taken a step that is required or permitted by a provision of this clause in relation to taking a period of leave, the Employee is taken to have taken the step in relation to the second Employer.

SUBDIVISION B – PARENTAL LEAVE

SB.4 Entitlement to Unpaid Parental Leave

SB.4.1 An Employee is entitled to 12 months of unpaid parental leave if:

- (a) the leave is associated with:

- (b) the Employee has or will have a responsibility for the care of the child.

SB.5 The Period of Leave – Other than for Members of an Employee Couple who each intend to take Leave

- (a) the Employee is not a member of an Employee couple, or

- (b) the Employee is a member of an Employee couple, but the other member of the couple does not intend to take unpaid parental leave.

SB.5.2 The Employee must take the leave in a single continuous period.

- (a) is an exception to the rule that the Employee must take her unpaid parental leave in a single continuous period (see sub-clause SB.5.2 or SB.6.2), and

SB.8.2 The notice must be given to the Employer:

- (a) at least:
 - i. ten (10) weeks before starting the leave, unless subparagraph (ii) applies; or
 - ii. if the leave is to be taken in separate periods of concurrent leave (see paragraph 6.5(b)) and the leave is not the first of those periods of concurrent leave--4 weeks before starting the period of concurrent leave; or
- (b) if that is not practicable – as soon as practicable (which may be a time after the leave has started).

SB.8.3 The notice must specify the intended start and end dates of the leave.

SB.8.5 An Employee who has given the Employer notice of the taking of unpaid parental leave must, if required by the Employer, give the Employer evidence that would satisfy a reasonable person:

- (b) if the leave is adoption-related leave:
 - (i) of the day of placement, or the expected day of placement, of the child, and
 - (ii) that the child is, or will be, under 16 as at the day of placement, or the expected day of placement, of the child.

- SB.8.6 Without limiting sub-clause SB.8.5, the Employer may require the evidence referred to in sub-clause SB.8.5(a) to be a medical certificate.

- (c) the amount of unpaid parental leave to which the other member of the Employee couple is entitled under clause SB.4 in relation to the child is reduced by the period of the extension.

SB.10.7 Despite any other provision of this clause, an Employee is not entitled to extend the period of unpaid parental leave beyond 24 months after the date of birth or day of placement of the child.

SB.11 Reducing Period of Unpaid Parental Leave

- (a) must be at least four (4) weeks after the notice is given to the Employee, and
- (b) if the leave is birth-related leave taken by a female Employee who has given birth – must not be earlier than six (6) weeks after the date of birth of the child.

SB.13.4 The Employee's entitlement to unpaid parental leave in relation to the child ends immediately before the specified day.

SB.14 Interaction with Paid Leave

SB.14.1 This clause (except for sub-clauses SB.14.2 and SB.14.3) does not prevent an Employee from taking any other kind of paid leave while they are taking unpaid parental leave. If the Employee does so, the taking of that other paid leave does not break the continuity of the period of unpaid parental leave.

SB.14.2 An Employee is not entitled to take paid personal/carer's leave or compassionate leave while they are taking unpaid parental leave.

SB.14.3 An Employee is not entitled to any payment under clause 7.2 (which deals with community service leave) in relation to activities the Employee engages in while taking unpaid parental leave.

SB 15 Keeping in touch days

SB 15.1 This Subdivision does not prevent an Employee from performing work for the Employer on a keeping in touch day while they are taking unpaid parental leave. If the Employee does so, the performance of that work does not break the continuity of the period of unpaid parental leave.

SB 15.2 A day on which the Employee performs work for the employer during the period of leave is a keeping in touch day if:

- (a) the purpose of performing the work is to enable the Employee to keep in touch with their employment in order to facilitate a return to that employment after the end of the period of leave; and
- (b) both the Employee and the Employer consent to the Employee performing work for the employer on that day; and
- (c) the day is not within:
 - i. if the Employee suggested or requested that he or she perform work for the Employer on that day--14 days after the date of birth, or day of placement, of the child to which the period of leave relates; or
 - ii. otherwise--42 days after the date of birth, or day of placement, of the child; and
- (d) the Employee has not already performed work for the employer or another entity on 10 days during the period of leave that were keeping in touch days.

The duration of the work the Employee performs on that day is not relevant for the purposes of this subsection.

SB 15.3 The Employee's decision whether to give the consent mentioned in paragraph SB15.2(b) is taken, for the purposes of section 344 of the Fair Work Act 2009 (Cth) (which deals with undue influence or pressure), to be a decision to make, or not make, an arrangement under the National Employment Standards.

SB 15.4 For the purposes of SB 15.2(d), treat as 2 separate periods of unpaid parental leave:

- (a) a period of unpaid parental leave taken during the Employee's available parental leave period; and
- (b) a period of unpaid parental leave taken as an extension of the leave referred to in paragraph (a) for a further period immediately following the end of the available parental leave period.

SB 16 Unpaid parental leave not extended by paid leave or keeping in touch days

If, during a period of unpaid parental leave, an Employee:

- (a) takes paid leave; or
- (b) performs work for his or her employer on a keeping in touch day;

taking that leave or performing that work does not have the effect of extending the period of unpaid parental leave.

SUBDIVISION C-OTHER ENTITLEMENTS

SB.17 Unpaid Special Maternity Leave

SB.17.1 A female Employee is entitled to a period of unpaid special maternity leave if she is not fit for work during that period because:

- (a) she has a pregnancy-related illness, or
- (b) she has been pregnant, and the pregnancy ends within 28 weeks of the expected date of birth of the child otherwise than by the birth of a living child.

SB.17.2 An Employee must give the Employer notice of the taking of unpaid special maternity leave by the Employee.

SB.17.3 The notice:

- (a) must be given to the Employer as soon as practicable (which may be a time after the leave has started), and
- (b) must advise the Employer of the period, or expected period, of the leave.

SB.17.4 An Employee who has given the Employer notice of the taking of unpaid special maternity leave must, if required by the Employer, give the Employer evidence that would satisfy a reasonable person that the leave is taken for a reason specified in sub-clause SB.17.1.

SB.17.5 Without limiting sub-clause SB.17.4, the Employer may require the evidence referred to, to be a medical certificate.

SB.17.6 An Employee is not entitled to take unpaid special maternity leave unless the Employee complies with sub-clauses SB.17.2 to SB.17.4.

SB.18 Transfer to a Safe Job

SB.18.1 This section applies to a pregnant Employee if they give the Employer evidence that would satisfy a reasonable person that they are fit for work, but that it is inadvisable for them to continue in their present position during a stated period (the risk period) because of:

- (a) illness, or risks, arising out of her pregnancy, or
- (b) hazards connected with that position.

SB.18.2 If there is an appropriate safe job available, then the Employer must transfer the Employee to that job for the risk period, with no other change to the Employee's terms and conditions of employment.

SB.18.3 An appropriate safe job is a safe job that has:

- (a) the same ordinary hours of work as the Employee's present position, or
- (b) a different number of ordinary hours agreed to by the Employee.

SB.18.4 If the Employee is transferred to an appropriate safe job for the risk period, the Employer must pay the Employee for the safe job at the Employee's full rate of pay (for the position she was in before the transfer) for the hours that she works in the risk period.

SB.18.5 If the Employee's pregnancy ends before the end of the risk period, the risk period ends when the pregnancy ends.

SB 18.6 Without limiting clause SB 18.1, the Employer may require the evidence to be a medical certificate.

SB 19 Paid no safe job leave

SB 19.1 If:

- (a) clause SB.18 applies to a pregnant Employee but there is no appropriate safe job available; and
- (b) the Employee is entitled to unpaid parental leave; and
- (c) the Employee has complied with the notice and evidence requirements of clause SB 8 for taking unpaid parental leave;

then the Employee is entitled to paid no safe job leave for the risk period.

SB 19.2 If the Employee takes paid no safe job leave for the risk period, the Employer must pay the Employee at the Employee's base rate of pay for the Employee's ordinary hours of work in the risk period.

SB.20 Employee on paid no safe job leave may be asked to provide a further medical certificate

SB.20.1 If an Employee is on paid no safe job leave during the six (6) week period before the expected date of birth of the child, the Employer may ask the Employee to give the Employer a medical certificate stating whether the Employee is fit for work.

SB.20.2 The Employer may require the Employee to take a period of unpaid parental leave (the period of leave) as soon as practicable if:

- (a) the Employee does not give the Employer the requested certificate within seven (7) days after the request, or
- (b) within seven (7) days after the request, the Employee gives the Employer a certificate stating that the Employee is not fit for work.

SB.20.3 When the period of leave starts, the Employee's entitlement to paid no safe job leave ends.

SB.20.4 Sub-clauses SB.7.3, SB.7.4 and SB.7.5 apply to the period of leave.

SB 21 Unpaid no safe job leave

SB 21.1 If:

- (a) clause SB 18 applies to a pregnant Employee but there is no appropriate safe job available; and
- (b) the Employee is not entitled to unpaid parental leave; and
- (c) if required by the Employer--the Employee has given the Employer evidence that would satisfy a reasonable person of the pregnancy;

then the Employee is entitled to unpaid no safe job leave for the risk period.

SB 21.2 Without limiting clause SB 21.1, an Employer may require the evidence referred to in paragraph (1)(c) to be a medical certificate.

SB.22 Consultation with Employee on Unpaid Parental Leave

SB.22.1 If:

- (a) an Employee is on unpaid parental leave, and
- (b) the Employer makes a decision that will have a significant effect on the status, pay or location of the Employee's pre-parental leave position;

the Employer must take all reasonable steps to give the Employee information about, and an opportunity to discuss, the effect of the decision on that position.

SB.22.2 The Employee's pre-parental leave position is:

- (a) unless paragraph (b) applies, the position the Employee held before starting the unpaid parental leave, or
- (b) if, before starting the unpaid parental leave, the Employee:

- (i) was transferred to a safe job because of her pregnancy, or
- (ii) reduced her working hours due to her pregnancy;

the position the Employee held immediately before that transfer or reduction.

SB.23 Return to Work Guarantee

On ending unpaid parental leave, an Employee is entitled to return to:

- (a) the Employee's pre-parental leave position, or
- (b) if that position no longer exists - an available position for which the Employee is qualified and suited nearest in status and pay to the pre-parental leave position.

SB 24 Replacement Employees

Before the Employer engages an Employee to perform the work of another Employee who is going to take, or is taking, unpaid parental leave, the Employer must notify the replacement Employee:

- (a) that the engagement to perform that work is temporary; and
- (b) of the rights:
 - i. the Employer; and
 - ii. the Employee taking unpaid parental leave; have under clauses SB 12.2 and SB 12.3 (which provide a right to cancel the leave if the pregnancy ends other than by the birth of a living child or if the child dies after birth); and
- (c) of the rights the Employee taking unpaid parental leave has under:
 - i. clauses SB12.4 to SB 12.6 (which provide a right to end the leave early if the pregnancy ends other than by the birth of a living child or if the child dies after birth); and
 - ii. clause SB 23 (which deals with the return to work guarantee); and
- (d) of the effect of clause SB 13 (which provides the employer with a right to require the Employee taking unpaid parental leave to return to work if the Employee ceases to have any responsibility for the care of the child).

SB.25 Unpaid Pre-adoption Leave

- SB.25.1 An Employee is entitled to up to two (2) days of unpaid pre-adoption leave to attend any interviews or examinations required in order to obtain approval for the Employee's adoption of a child.
- SB.25.2 However, an Employee is not entitled to take a period of unpaid pre-adoption leave if:
 - (a) the Employee could instead take some other form of leave, and
 - (b) the Employer directs the Employee to take that other form of leave.
- SB.25.3 An Employee who is entitled to a period of unpaid pre-adoption leave is entitled to take the leave as:
