The processes provided herein facilitate a fair and orderly framework to deal with matters involving disciplinary action and unsatisfactory work performance. In particular these arrangements should ensure that prior to any decision being taken to dismiss an employee (on those grounds) the employee is afforded proper procedural fairness and natural justice.

In this respect the following processes will be applied:

37.1 Informal Processes

Before embarking upon the formal prior warning process the employer may (having regard to the circumstances) consider it more appropriate to deal with the issue by way of verbal warning, reprimand or through counselling.

37.2 Formal Warnings

These arrangements apply to the formal process by the employer to seriously address matters of unacceptable or unsatisfactory performance, misdemeanour or misconduct which does not warrant summary dismissal:-

- 37.2.1. A meeting will be held between the employer and employee to address the nature of the complaint(s) and/or incident;
- 37.2.2. In the case of unacceptable or unsatisfactory performance, misconduct or misdemeanour the employee should have the opportunity to put their side of the matter as part of the process;

Should further misdemeanour, unacceptable conduct or unsatisfactory performance recur or continue (provided that it is within the period of relevance of twelve (12) months of the first written warning) a second and final written warning will be given to the employee. Such warning should make it clear that continued unacceptable performance, conduct or misdemeanour may result in dismissal
- 37.2.9. In cases of serious breach of health and safety policies or misconduct the period of relevance may be extended beyond twelve (12) months.
- 37.2.10. The formal written warning will include a clear statement in relation to the period of relevance.

- 37.3.2. Prior to the decision being made the employee shall have the opportunity to consider the complaint(s) or allegation and respond if he/she so chooses
- 37.3.3. An employee may be assisted in such response by another employee or representative
- 37.3.4. Where the decision is contemplated as a result of continuing unsatisfactory performance and/or conduct there will be a need to demonstrate prior warning in respect of such performance or conduct

 - 38.2.2 4 weeks of total weekly salary as severance payment for each completed year of service with the Council to a maximum payment of 104 weeks (including the period of notice of termination referred to in (2));

38.2.3 If required by the employee, up to 10% of annual salary will be paid by the Council to assist the employee in securing other employment. It is understood that this will not be a cash payment to the employee, but will be by direct payment to an approved outplacement service provider, or by reimbursement to the employee of expenses actually incurred by the employee in seeking other full-time employment. Access to this 10% shall apply only until the employee commences other employment, or for a maximum period of 12 months from the date of separation, whichever is the sooner;

38.2.4 Pro-rata Long Service Leave shall be paid if the employee has attained 5 years of service at the date of separation.

The Council shall apply to the Deputy Commissioner of Taxation to have the separation package paid pursuant to this Clause approved as a bona fide redundancy payment or early retirement scheme benefit under the relevant sections of the Income Tax Assessment Act.

38.3 Any determination being made regarding the occupant of a redundant position and the means of workforce reduction will be made by the Employer in consultation with the affected employee.

38.4 The Council will act in concert with the employee to find the most appropriate solution, having regard to employee issues as well as the financial and / or operational issues.

This means that contributions made to the Superannuation Fund will be adjusted (at the employee's cost) to take account of taxation payable in relation to those contributions.
