- 25.2 In order to achieve these goals there will be no change in the current sick leave entitlement (nor the accrual of untaken sick leave from year to year) for "employees". A provision shall be made for a maximum of ten (10) days sick leave, personal or family leave combined together upon the requirements of the "employee".
- 25.3 In the matter of Carer's leave, where the "employee" can identify as being the only carer, ten (10) days being the normal sick leave credit, can be taken (or parts thereof) for immediate family needs that would require the "employees" to be in personal attendance with access being through certification by way of a Medical Practitioner's authority or by mutual agreement.
- 25.4 Prior notification to employer should apply in a timely manner (other than emergencies) to allow for the allocation of leave in both instances of personal and Carer's Leave.

Clause 26 – Industrial Agreement Arrangements

- 29.1.1 In the first instance, she shall have a total of twelve (12) months of continuous service at the time of taking the leave.
- 29.1.2 The period of eight (8) weeks leave will be paid in normal fortnightly payments from the commencement of the maternity leave component of the “employees” leave.
- 29.1.3 Any public holiday or other statutory holiday which may fall within the period of eight (8) weeks paid maternity leave shall be counted as a day of such maternity leave.

- b. The period of 8 weeks leave may be paid in normal fortnightly payments or over 16 (sixteen) weeks, with a minimum of 1 (one) week's adoption leave per fortnight from the commencement of the maternity leave component of the “employees” leave;
- c. Any public holiday or other statutory holiday which may fall within the period of 8 weeks paid adoption leave shall be counted as a day of such adoption leave;
- d. Absence from work during paid adoption leave shall count as service for sick leave, annual leave and long service leave purposes.

- 30.2 An “employee” who is not deemed as the primary carer of an infant/child to be legally adopted and who has completed 12 months continuous service will be entitled to one week paid adoption leave on the production of confirmation of the adoption and the expected date for it to be granted.

Part 6 – Organisational Change

Clause 31 – Consultation

- 31.1 Good human resource management is based on effective and continuous consultation between all parties. Effective and positive consultation is based upon a well-developed, honest and open communication strategy including:
- 31.1.1 A systematic approach to communication.
  - 31.1.2 Council will undertake at Departmental level, in consultation with the parties, a review of basic, management, operational and external communications to ensure honest and open disclosure, accessibility and participation of all levels of the organisation and prompt dissemination of all information.
  - 31.1.3 Communication strategies will be reviewed by the parties before the expiration of this “Agreement”.
  - 31.1.4 Where organisational reviews are to occur, a “local workplace committee” and/or “multi workplace committees” may be established to assist in the above process.

Clause 32 – Introduction of Change

- 32.1 “Employer's” Duty to Notify:
- 32.1.1 Where an “employer” has made a definite decision to introduce major changes in production, program, organisation, structure or technology that are likely to have “Significant Effects” on “employees” the “employer” shall notify the “employees” who may be affected by the proposed changes and the relevant “union(s)”.
- 32.2 “Employer's” Duty to Discuss Change:
- 32.2.1 The “employer” shall discuss with the “employees” affected and the relevant “union(s)” “inter alia”, the introduction of the changes referred to in (32.1) hereof, the effects the changes are likely to have on “employees”, measures to avert or mitigate the adverse effects of such changes on “employees”, and shall give prompt consideration to matters raised by the “employees” and/or the relevant “union(s)” in relation to the changes.
  - 32.2.2 The discussions shall commence as early as practicable after a definite decision has been made by the employer to make the changes referred to in (32.1)

- 32.2.3 For the purposes of such discussion, the “employer” shall provide in writing to the “employees” concerned and the relevant “union(s)” all relevant information about the changes including the nature of the changes proposed, the expected effects of the changes on “employees” and any other matters likely to affect “employees” provided that the “employer” shall not be required to disclose confidential information the disclosure of which would be inimical to the “employer's” interests.

Clause 33 – Employee Relations

- 33.1 The parties recognise the need to maintain mutual trust and understanding to improve employee relations throughout the organisation.
- 33.2 The parties agree that consultation is viewed as essential to any change. Management recognises the need for “employee” commitment to achieve effective improvements in productivity.

Clause 34 – Employment Security

- 34.1 There shall be no forced redundancies during the life of this “Agreement”.
- 34.2 Any determination being made regarding redundant positions will be made by the organisation in conjunction with employees and the “Union”.
- 34.3 The means of adjustment in those situations where organisational change results in positions being no longer required will be dealt with in the following way:
- 34.3.1 Natural attrition, or
  - 34.3.2 Redeployment to a position of the same classification level, or
  - 34.3.3 Redeployment to a position of lower classification level with income maintenance, or
  - 34.3.4 Voluntary separation package.
- However, “employees” may seek a voluntary separation package at any stage of the process.
- 34.4 It is the primary aim to redeploy “employees” into a position of equal classification and status as their pre-redeployment position.
- 34.5 After examining all options, it is agreed by all of the parties that if redeployment to such a position is not feasible, an “employee” may be redeployed into a position of lower classification on the following basis:
- 34.5.1 The redeployment must be a position which is compatible with the “employee’s” skills, abilities and training.

- 34.5.2 The “employer” will, as a matter of priority, provide training to assist the redeployee into the new position.
- 34.5.3 The “employee’s” pre-redeployment wage shall be maintained for 12 months, including all incremental advances due, and “Agreement” increases relevant to the pre-redeployed position. At the end of that term, the “employee’s” wage shall be frozen until the salary of the new classification equals the “employee’s” pre-redeployment classification. The period of income maintenance will be from the date the “employee” commences the new position, excluding all leave previously accrued.
- 34.6 Where redeployment occurs the Redeployment and Retraining Guidelines (Appendix G) shall be adhered to.
- 34.7 The “employee” must either accept the permanent redeployment offer or access the voluntary separation package.
- 34.8 Should an “employee” elect to take a voluntary separation package, such package shall comprise:
  - 34.8.1 Ten (10) weeks notice of termination or payment of total weekly salary in lieu thereof.
  - 34.8.2 Three (3) weeks of total weekly salary as severance payment for each year of service in local government.
  - 34.8.3 Long Service Leave entitlements after more than five (5) years of continuous service.
  - 34.8.4 A payment representing 10% of total annual salary for the purpose of outplacement counselling/training. This payment to be made available on a reimbursement for costs incurred basis for a maximum period of 12 months from the date of separation or until the employee obtains alternative employment, whichever is sooner.

Clause 35 – Grievance/Dispute Resolution

- 35.1 In the event of a dispute between the “Council” and an “employee” or “employees” concerning any aspect of work, the following procedure shall apply:
  - 35.1.1 It is the aim of both parties to ensure that grievances are resolved as quickly as possible in order to preserve positive working relationships.
  - 35.1.2 “Employee(s)” will in the first instance seek to resolve any dispute with the relevant Supervisor. If the “employee” wishes, he or she may involve the “Employee Representative”, Industrial Officer or any other person(s) he or she wishes in attempting to resolve the dispute. Conversely, Supervisors should seek to resolve any dispute with the employee(s) concerned.

- 35.1.3 If the matter is not resolved at this stage, the “employee” (and the ‘Employee Representative” if desired) may refer the matter to the Director of relevant Department.
- 35.1.4 If the matter is not resolved at this stage, the “employee” (and the “Employee Representative” if desired) may refer the matter to the Chief Executive Officer. The “employee” and “Employee Representative” may involve the “Union” Industrial Officer at this stage.
- 35.1.5 The above process should be completed within seven (7) days of the issue first being raised; however, until the dispute is resolved the status quo shall remain.
- 35.1.6 Nothing contained in this clause shall prevent an Industrial Officer or “Union” from raising matters directly with management.
- 35.1.7 Either party reserves the right to notify the South Australian Employment Tribunal (SAET) of a dispute at any stage. If the issues are not resolved in the conference process, the matter will be referred for determination and the SAET will then arbitrate and make a decision about the issues between the parties.
