5. NO RETRENCHMENT

- 5.1 The parties acknowledge that there will be no forced retrenchment of employees with the right to ongoing employment bound by this Enterprise Agreement for the life of the South Australian Wages Parity Enterprise Agreement 2001. Where improved services and efficiencies are obtained which result in staff becoming surplus to requirements, Government House will provide those employees with access to redeployment opportunities in accordance with Government policy and procedures in existence at the time.

6. REDEPLOYMENT

- 6.1 The parties agree to abide by the Public Sector Management Act, Direction 6 – ‘Redeployment Practice’ issued by the Commissioner for Public Employment as amended from time to time.

In particular, the parties note and agree to the following:

Pending assignment/transfer/placement in an ongoing position, an excess employee will be provided with and will undertake temporary work. During the period the employee is undertaking such temporary work, Government House (or its redeployment case manager) will identify, in consultation with the employee, opportunities for training, re-training or other relevant development in order to expand the employee’s options for redeployment. The employee will co-operatively and actively participate in any such identified training, retraining or other relevant development opportunities.

If after a period of 6 months as an excess employee no suitable ongoing position has been offered or accepted, the excess employee may be directed to a position/work (which may be external to Government House) that is within the excess employee’s skills or abilities, with training if required. A position or package of work will be deemed suitable even if it involves variation to any, or all of, starting and finishing times, distance from home (provided every effort is made so as not to involve relocation of the employee's household and due consideration is given to the employee's personal circumstances), or rate of pay (provided that this clause will not affect the Income Maintenance clause in Direction No.6). An employee who has been an excess employee for at least 6 months will be subject to this clause. If an employee believes the direction to be unreasonable, the employee may request the Commissioner for Public Employment (or delegate) to mediate between the employee (including a representative of an employee association, if applicable) and Government House (or its redeployment case manager) in order to resolve the issue.

An excess employee will:

- (i) with assistance and support, prepare, maintain and provide in a timely manner an up to date resume to Government House's redeployment case manager or other designated person;
- (ii) attend interviews as requested and participate in them in a positive and constructive manner;
- (iii) actively co-operate in Government House's (or its redeployment case manager's) efforts to effect redeployment to an ongoing position (including redeployment to a position on a trial basis);
- (iv) comply with any reasonable request/direction from Government House's redeployment case manager or other designated person (however designated); and
- (v) comply with all attendance requirements.

7. SALARY AND WAGE ADJUSTMENTS

- 7.1 This clause refers to the wage and salary schedules appearing in: Appendix 1: Wages and Salaries
- 7.2 Except as provided by this clause, the wage rates and salaries payable to employees are those detailed in Appendix 1: Wages and Salaries which provides for wage rates and salaries which will operate on and from the dates specified (the "applicable date"), namely:
- 1 October 2002, 4% increase; and
 - 1 October 2003, 4% increase respectively.
- 7.3 The wage or salary payable to an employee as at the applicable date shall not reduce by reason of a wage or salary schedule in this Enterprise Agreement.
- 7.4 The parties acknowledge that the adult wage rates and salaries detailed in Appendix 1: Wages and Salaries include the following agreed minimum wage / salary adjustment applicable to the classifications in that Appendix:
- 7.4.1 $1221 per annum ($23.40 per week) on and from 1 October 2002; and

- 8.1.1 Subject to this clause, the salary payable to an employee, or applicable to a position where the occupant elects to enter into a SSA, pursuant to this Enterprise Agreement will be the salary payable under the SSA, notwithstanding any other provision in, or Schedule of, this Enterprise Agreement.
- 8.1.2 Any entitlement to payment of overtime, leave loading or shift allowance will be based on the salary that would have been payable had the employee not entered into a SSA.
- 8.1.3 Where, on cessation of employment, the employer makes a payment in lieu of notice; or a payment in respect of accrued recreation or long service leave entitlements (instead of transferring leave credits to another Government Public Service employer in the event the employee immediately becomes employed by that employer party), the payment thereof shall be based on the salary that would have been payable had the employee not entered into a SSA.

9. WORKLIFE FLEXIBILITY

- 9.2.1 An employee who applied for and was granted maternity leave or adoption leave commencing after the date of approval of this Enterprise Agreement will, in respect of the whole or part of leave occurring on or after the date of such approval, be entitled to the benefits provided by this clause as if this clause was in force at the time of taking such leave.

- 9.2.6 During periods of paid or unpaid maternity leave, sick leave with pay will not be granted for a normal period of absence for confinement. However, any illness arising from the incidence of the pregnancy may be covered by sick leave to the extent available, subject to the usual provisions relating to production of a medical certificate and the medical certificate indicates that the illness has arisen from the pregnancy.

 - (a) The employee will provide such request at least 6 weeks prior to the date on which the employee's maternity or adoption leave is due to expire, and will provide to the employer such information as may reasonably be required, including the proportion of time sought, and the date of the relevant child's second birthday;
 - (b) At least 6 weeks prior to the relevant child's second birthday, the employee will advise the employer whether the employee will revert to employment on a full time basis or seeks to continue to be employed on a part time basis.

9.4 Reimbursement of Reasonable Child Care Costs

9.4.1 Where an employee, other than a casual employee, is given less than 24 hours prior notice that the employee is required to work outside of their ordinary hours of work, and consequently the employee utilises paid child care, the agency will reimburse the reasonable child care costs incurred by the employee arising from performing such work, subject to this clause.

9.4.1.1 The prior period of 24 hours is to be calculated from the time at which the work is to begin.

9.4.1.2 The work, or the hour/s to be worked, is not part of a regular or systematic pattern of work or hour/s performed by the employee.

9.4.1.3 The reimbursement will be in respect of the reasonable costs incurred by the employee in respect of the work.

9.4.1.4 Reimbursement will be made for child care costs in respect of Registered Care or Approved Care after all other sources of reimbursement have been exhausted. Where the child care costs are incurred for child care not in a registered or approved centre, reimbursement will be made in accordance with a child care reimbursement rate, and guidelines, published from time to time by the Commissioner for Public Employment.

9.4.1.5 The employee will provide the employer with a Child Benefit Claim Form for either Registered Care or Approved Care, tax invoice/receipt, or other supporting documentation as may from time to time be required detailing the cost incurred, or reimbursement sought, in respect of the work.

9.4.1.6 For the purposes of this clause, a reference to work is a reference to the work outside the employee's ordinary hours, or regular or systematic pattern of work or hour/s, for which less than 24 hours prior notice is given.

9.5 Reimbursement of Reasonable Travel Costs

9.5.1 Where an employee, other than a casual employee, is required to work outside of their ordinary hours of work and the period of work starts or finishes outside of the ordinary timetabled operating hours of public transport, the employee will be entitled to reimbursement of reasonable home to work or work to home (as applicable) travel costs, subject to this clause.

The employee will provide the employer with such tax invoice/receipt or other supporting documentation as may from time to time be required detailing the cost incurred or reimbursement sought.

10. MINIMUM HOURS OF ENGAGEMENT

10.1 A casual employee will be engaged for a minimum period of three hours, unless otherwise expressly agreed between the employer and the employee.

a) Subject to this clause, the salary or wages payable to an employee, or applicable to a position, where the employee elects to participate in a VFWA, will be adjusted to Overtime will only be payable where the employee is required to work hours in excess of those ordinary hours on any day or in excess of the total of those ordinary hours in a week.

- d) Where, on cessation of employment, the employer makes a payment in lieu of notice; or a payment in respect of accrued recreation or long service leave entitlements, the payment thereof (or the transferred leave credits) shall have regard to any period/s in which the employee participated in a VFWA and be adjusted accordingly.
